

for other purposes. The great inconvenience the sheriffs in the lower counties on the Eastern Shore will necessarily experience should this bill not pass, has induced us to hope, that upon re-consideration it will meet your approbation.

By order,

UPTON S. REID, Clk.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, January 21, 1815.

Gentlemen of the senate,

From the very great inconvenience experienced by a part of the citizens of Alleghany county for the want of two additional election districts in that county, we hope on a re-consideration of the bill intended to embrace that object, you will pass it, by which means you are permitting freemen with more convenience to exercise that right and privilege which the constitution guarantees to them.

By order,

UPTON S. REID, Clk.

Which were severally read.

The bill entitled, an act to incorporate Elkton, in Cecil county, was read the second time and will pass.

The bill entitled, an act supplementary to the act entitled, an act to prohibit the emigration of free negroes into this state, was read the second time, and will not pass.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

TUESDAY, January 24.

The senate met. Present, the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill entitled, an act to incorporate Elkton, in Cecil county. And the bill entitled, an act supplementary to the act entitled, an act to prohibit the emigration of free negroes into this state, were sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

Mr. Brown, L. Hollingsworth and N. Williams, appeared in the senate.

The bill entitled, a supplement to the act passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirteen, chapter one hundred and eighteen, entitled, an act to prohibit the collection of certain wharf-ages within the city of Baltimore, was read the second time and the question put, shall the said bill pass. The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE—Messrs. Frazier, Hebb, Nabb, Stephen.—4

NEGATIVE—Messrs. Davis, (Pres't) Brown, Fenwick, Hawkins, L. Hollingsworth, W. Hollingsworth, Lubbrook, N. Williams, Worthington.—9

So it was determined in the negative, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

On motion, Resolved, that the bill entitled, an additional supplement to the act respecting the equity jurisdiction of the county courts, have a second reading on to-morrow.

The bill entitled, a further supplement to the act entitled, an act for regulating the mode of staying executions, and repealing the acts of assembly therein mentioned, and for other purposes, was read the second time and will pass with the proposed amendment.

Amendment proposed.

At the end of the bill add "and be it enacted, that the act entitled, a further additional supplement to the act entitled, an act for regulating the mode of staying executions, and repealing the acts of assembly therein mentioned, and for other purposes, passed December session 1813, be, and the same are hereby repealed." Sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Baltimore hose company, was read the second time, passed and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill entitled, an act to authorise the sale of a lot of ground in Baltimore county, for the benefit of the children of Andrew Buchanan, deceased, was read the second time, and will not pass. Sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill entitled, an act for the benefit of Richard Allen, and Cassander his wife, of Anne Arundel county, was read the second time, and will pass with the proposed amendments.

Amendments proposed.

1st. After the word "wife" in the 9th line of the enacting clause, insert "thirty dollars for Elizabeth Bryan and her infant children; thirty dollars for Singleton Warfield, and thirty dollars for Sarah Carman."

2d. Strike out from the word "the" in the last line but one to the end of the bill, and insert "persons respectively entitled to receive the same."

3d. Strike out the title and insert "a bill entitled, an act for the relief of the persons therein mentioned, of Anne Arundel county." Sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The following message was read, agreed to, and with the bill therein mentioned, sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

BY THE SENATE, January 24, 1815.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

In reply to your message of the 21st instant, requesting a re-consideration of the bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act relating to sheriffs and for other purposes, the senate are of opinion that it is highly beneficial both to plaintiffs and defendants, that notice of sales of slaves and lands should be given in some news paper circulating in the counties where such sales are to be made; being therefore satisfied with the provisions of the original laws upon the subject, they decline the re-consideration of the said bill.

By order,

THOS. ROGERS, Clk.

The bill entitled, an act for the relief of Sarah Carman, of Anne Arundel county. The bill entitled, an act for the relief of Singleton Warfield, of Anne Arundel county. And the bill entitled, an act for the relief of Elizabeth Bryan and her infant children, of Anne Arundel county, were severally read the second time and will not pass. Sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill entitled an act to incorporate a company to
