

Resolved That the treasurer of the Western Shore pay to the reverend Joseph Wyatt, the sum of one hundred dollars for his services as chaplain to the house of delegates the present session out of any unappropriated money in the treasury. By order, UPTON S. REID, Clk.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, Jan. 26, 1815.

Resolved, That the treasurer of the Western Shore pay to Caleb Stewart, door-keeper of the house of delegates, the sum of sixty dollars and to Henry Thompson, messenger to the senate, the sum of fifty dollars as a compensation for their services in taking care of the furniture of their respective rooms in the recess of the general assembly. By order, UPTON S. REID, Clk.

Which were severally read and ordered to lie on the table.

On motion by Mr. N. Williams, leave given to bring in a bill entitled, an act to alter the sixteenth section of the constitution and form of government. Ordered, that Messrs. N. Williams, Worthington and Brown be a committee to prepare and bring in the same.

Mr. N. Williams delivers the said bill, which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

On motion by Mr. N. Williams, the following resolution was read and assented to.

Resolved, That the resolutions passed at each session of the general assembly be recorded with the laws of the session. By order, THOS. ROGERS, Clk.

The bill entitled, an act authorising a partition of the lands therein mentioned, was read the second time and will not pass.

On motion by Mr. N. Williams, the following resolution was read.

Resolved, That the governor be, and he hereby is authorised and requested to cause to be removed under the superintendance of the respective public officers, all the records, books and papers belonging to the several public offices in the city of Annapolis, to some place of safety within this state, and when in the opinion of the governor it can be done with safety, he hereby is authorised and requested to cause the said records, books and papers so removed, to be returned to the city of Annapolis. By order, THOS. ROGERS, Clk.

The report of the committee to whom were referred the resolutions in favor of the officers and soldiers, was read the second time, and concurred in.

The following message was read the first and second time and assented to.

BY THE SENATE, January 27, 1815.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The senate have rejected the resolutions in favor of sundry officers and soldiers of the revolutionary war, in consideration of the numerous demands upon the treasury at this period, when extraordinary expenditures are authorised and required. They however cherish the hope that at some future session the finances of the state will enable it to reward liberally the meritorious services of the petitioners. By order, THOS. ROGERS, Clk.

The bill entitled, an act to lay out and open a road therein mentioned, was read the second time by special order, and will not pass.

The resolution appointing commissioners to examine Choptank bridge, was read the second time and assented to with sundry amendments.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning nine o'clock.

SATURDAY, January 28.

The senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. Mr Holbrook appeared in the senate.

The bill entitled, an act to lay out and open a road therein mentioned. The bill entitled, an act authorising a partition of the lands therein mentioned. The resolution appointing commissioners to examine Choptank bridge. The resolution relative to recording the resolutions passed at each session of the general assembly with the laws, and the resolutions in favor of the officers and soldiers of the revolutionary war, with the message relative thereto, were sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

On motion, ordered, that the report of the committee relative to an alteration of the constitution of the United States, so as to reduce the term of service of senators in the congress of the United States, be recommitted.

The bill entitled, an act for the benefit of the heirs of Robert Hanson Harrison, late of Charles county, deceased, was read the second time and will not pass; sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution in favor of the reverend Joseph Wyatt and the resolution in favor of Caleb Stewart and Henry Thompson, was read the second time, assented to and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill entitled, an act to incorporate Frederick town in Frederick county, was read the second time, passed with sundry amendments, and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

On motion by Mr. Brown, leave given to bring in a bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act to provide for the settlement of claims arising from the past or future employment of the militia of this state. Ordered, that Messrs. Brown, Worthington and Hebb be a committee to prepare and bring in the same.

Mr Brown from the committee delivers the said bill, which was read the first and second time by special order, passed and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The bill entitled, an act for the benefit of James Wood, of Harford county, and the bill entitled, an act for the benefit of John Darnall, contractor for the supply of the militia of Prince George's county, were severally read the second time, and will not pass; sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

The resolution in favor of the military accountant for the Eastern Shore was read the second time, dissented from and sent to the house of delegates by the clerk.

On motion by Mr. L. Hollingsworth, leave given to bring in a bill entitled, a supplement to an