Resolved, That the governor of this state cause a correct copy of the act passed at the present session of assembly entitled, an act repealing the fourth section of an act entitled, an act to incorporate a company to make an artificial road therein mentioned to be forwarded to the governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with a request that the same be communicated to the legislature of the said commonwealth.

On motion by Mr. Stansbury, the following preamble and resolutions were read:

While the General Assembly of Maryland look back with admiration on the glorious achievements of the American arms generally during the late war between the United States and Great Britain, they cannot but feel a just pride in the recollection particularly of the distinguished gallantry of colonel George E. Mitchell, colonel Jacob Hindman and lieutenant-colonel Nathan Towson, native sons of Maryland. Therefore, as a tribute to their valor from the state which gave them birth, and as an evidence of the high sense entertained by this legislature of their meritorious conduct,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That his excellency the governor be and is hereby required to have purchased and presented to each of them an elegant sword, suitable to officers of their rank, with such devices and emblems as he may think adapted to the occasion.

And while this legislature is conferring on the above named gallant sons of the state they represent, this well earned distinction, their attention is irresistably drawn to the brave commander of Fort M'Heary, whose invincible constancy in maintaining that important post intrusted by his country to his gallantry and military experience during the tremendous bombardment on the 13th and 14th of September, 1814, by the British fleet, in which the respective forces engaged, were as unequal as was the result in honor to the one and in disgrace and discomfiture to the other, hereby adding another laurel to his country's fame, and entitling him to the admiration of all his countrymen, but more especially to that of the good people of this state who witnessed his firmness, and now enjoy the advantages it continued to preserve; therefore,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That his excellency the governor be, and he is hereby required to have purchased and presented to lietenant colonel George Armstead, an elegant sword suitable to his rank, with such emblems and devices as he may think adapted to the occasion.

And be it further resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the treasurer of the Western Shore pay to the order of the governor out of any unappropriated money in the treasury, so much as will enable him to carry into effect the foregoing resolutions.

By order,

LOUIS CASSAWAY, Clk.
