

The bill to incorporate the trustees of the Federal Hill Sunday School, was sent to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the following bills: A bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of the executors of Henry Strause, late of Montgomery county, deceased; a bill, entitled, An act authorising Richard Moffitt, late sheriff of Queen-Anne's county, to complete his collections; and a bill, entitled, An additional supplement to an act, entitled, An act to incorporate the Union Insurance Company of Maryland; which were read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

On motion, Ordered, That the bill further to continue an act passed at November session 1795, entitled, An act to incorporate an Insurance Company in Baltimore town, be referred to a special committee, and that Messrs Carmichael, Howard and Maxcy, be the said committee.

On motion, Ordered, That the bill, entitled, An additional supplement to an act, entitled, An act to incorporate the Union Insurance Company of Maryland, be referred to the same committee.

The bill for the benefit of Wilson Carey Selden, of the state of Virginia, was read the second, and by special order the third time, the question put, Shall this bill pass? The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow.

AFFIRMATIVE.

Mr. President, Messrs. Carmichael, Howard, Jackson and Parnham—5.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Cresap, Emerson, Gale and Maxcy—4.

Determined in the affirmative.

The bill to incorporate certain persons therein named for the purpose of establishing a free school called M·Kim's school, in the city of Baltimore, was read the second time, and on motion referred to a special committee. Ordered, That Messrs. Howard, Parnham and Maxcy, be the said committee.

The bill for the relief of Lambert W. Ford, James Christie and Edmond Brown, of Cecil county, was read the second time.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

FRIDAY, December 31, 1819.

The senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill for the benefit of the Reformed and Evangelical Lutheran church on Silver run, in Frederick county, called St. Mary's church, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will pass.

On motion of Mr. Gale the following orders were adopted.

Ordered, That so much of the Governor's communication as relates to the arsenals and public arms, be referred to Messrs. Emerson, Howard and Jackson, to consider and report thereon

Ordered, That so much as relates to the communication from the governor of Pennsylvania, be referred to Messrs. Gale, Carmichael and Parnham, to consider and report thereon.

Ordered, That so much as relates to the application of William Wood, be referred to Messrs. Jackson, Parnham and Cresap, to consider and report thereon.

Ordered, That so much as relates to the violation of the law regulating the licensing brokers, be referred to Messrs. Carmichael, West and Gale, to consider and report thereon

Ordered, that so much as relates to the revenue of the state, together with the treasurer's report, be referred to Messrs. Harper, Gale and Carmichael, to consider and report thereon.

Ordered, That so much as relates to internal improvement, be referred to Messrs. Howard, Emerson and Maxcy, to consider and report thereon.

Ordered, That so much as relates to education and public instruction, be referred to Messrs. Maxcy, Jackson and West, to consider and report thereon

The bill to incorporate the trustees of a methodist meeting house in Queen-Anne's county, and for other purposes, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will not pass.

The bill authorising Richard Moffitt, late sheriff of Queen-Anne's county, to complete his collections, was read the second and third time by special order and will pass.

The bill for the benefit of the executors of Henry Strause, late of Montgomery county, deceased, was read the second time by special order and laid on the table.

The bill for the relief of Lambert W. Ford, James Christie and Edmund Brown, of Cecil county, was read the third time by special order, when Mr. Gale prayed to be excused from voting thereon, as having been engaged as counsel against some of the parties, which was granted. The question was then put. Shall this bill pass? Determined in the negative.

The bill to incorporate a company for the purpose of building a bridge over the river Susquehanna, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will pass.

The bill for the benefit of the heirs of John Thomas, late of Harford county, deceased, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will pass.

Mr. Howard from the committee to whom was referred the bill to incorporate certain persons therein named for the purpose of establishing a free school called "M·Kim's School," in the city of Baltimore, reported the same with certain amendments, which were adopted; the bill was then read the third time by special order, as amended, and will pass.

Amendments. 1st. Strike out from the word "whereas" in the 9th line of the preamble to the end of the preamble, and insert "it is expedient and proper to carry into effect the benevolent views of the donor aforesaid, therefore." 2nd. Strike out the words "And be it enacted, That the said school shall be under the direction and management of," in the 18th and 19th lines of the first page, and insert "Be it enacted by the general assembly of Maryland, that." 3d. Strike out the word "trustees" after the words "Joseph Brevett" in the 2nd line of the 2nd page, and insert "he and they are hereby appointed trustees for the purposes aforesaid." 4th. Strike out the second section and insert "And be it enacted, That in case of the death, resignation, refusal to act, or removal from Baltimore, of any of the said trustees, the