

to his order, for life, in quarter annual payments, the half pay of a private, as a remuneration for his services during the revolutionary war.

By order,

J. BREWER, Clk.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, January 10, 1820.

Resolved, That Henry Darden, one of the securities of William Chambers, against whom a judgment has been obtained by the state of Maryland in Queen-Anne's county court, be indulged in the payment thereof till the first day of December next; provided always, that the said Henry Darden shall, on the first day of next court, appear on the capias ad satisfaciendum issued against him in Queen-Anne's county court, and consent to the stay of execution, upon which the sheriff of Queen-Anne's county shall be discharged from the judgment rendered against him by default in the above case.

By order,

J. BREWER, Clk.

Also a bill, entitled, An act to allow Daniel Schnebly, late sheriff and collector of Washington county, further time to complete his collection; a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Richard Cale, of Anne-Arundel county; a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Andrew Raburgh, of Queen Anne's county; and a bill, entitled, An act authorising Joseph M. Cromwell, late sheriff of Frederick county, to complete his collection; which were read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill to encourage the destruction of crows in Anne-Arundel county, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will not pass.

The senate resumed the consideration of the bill to authorise William A. Palmore to import and bring into this state a negro slave therein mentioned, and on motion of Mr. Jackson the question was put, Will the senate receive the following as amendments to the said bill, to wit: 1. After the title insert the following preamble: "Whereas it appears to this general assembly, that William A. Palmore removed to this state from the state of Virginia, and was at the time of removal unable to bring a certain negro slave, his property, called Toney, he being at that time an apprentice; therefore." 2d. After the word "that" 1st line enacting clause insert the word "said." 3rd. Strike out the letter "a" 4th line enacting clause, and insert the words "the said." 4th. After the word "William" in the proviso add "A. Palmore." Resolved in the affirmative.

The bill being read throughout, the question was put, Shall the bill as amended pass? Determined in the affirmative.

The bill for the benefit of Rachel Weems of Anne-Arundel county, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and on motion of Mr. Gale, the question was put, Will the senate receive the following as an amendment, to wit: At the end of the bill add "provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the rights of the creditors of the said John Weems." Resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, Shall the bill pass as amended? The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Mr. President, Messrs. Cresap, Gale, Harper, Jackson, Magruder and Maxcy—7.

NEGATIVE.

Mr. Carmichael—1.

Determined in the affirmative.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.
