The resolution in favour of Eli Hewitt and Alexander Russell, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and dissented from.

The resolution in favour of public debtors, was read the second and third time by special order, and assented to.

The following message was read and agreed to:

BY THE SENATE, February 9, 1820.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The session is now drawing to a close, and we propose that the governor shall be invited to attend in the senate chamber to sign such laws as have been passed, on Thursday the 10th inst. at 4 o'clock P. M. It frequently happens at the close of the session, that inconvenience is sustained by the number of laws to be signed.

By order,

J. N. WATKINS, Clk.

The additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act for regulating the mode of staying executions, and repealing the acts of assembly therein mentioned, and for other purposes, with message and amendments relative thereto, received from the house of delegates, was referred to Messrs. Gale, Maxcy and Hollyday.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

THURSDAY, February 10, 1820.

The senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. The supplement to the act, entitled, An act to facilitate the recovery of debts due from the several banks in this state, and to compel them to pay specie for their notes or forfeit their charters; the resolution in favour of public debtors; the resolution in favour of Eli Hewitt and Alexander Russell; and the message of yesterday relative to signing and sealing the laws, were sent to the house of delegates.

Also the engrossed bills of the senate No. 133, 134.

The resolution in favour of Joseph Mankin was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to declare and enlarge the powers of the court of chancery, and the county courts as courts of equity; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

And returns a bill, entitled, An act supplementary to the act, entitled, An act to authorise a lottery or lotteries in the city of Baltimore; and a bill for the relief of sundry poor persons in the several counties therein mentioned, severally endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendments." Amendments read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The senate resumed the consideration of the resolution in favour of the Female Union School Society, for the promotion of Sabbath Schools, and on motion of Mr. Howard, the consideration thereof was further postponed.

The supplement to the act, entitled, An act to establish a bank and incorporate a company under the name of the Conococheague Bank in Williamsport, in Washington county; was read the second, and by special order the third time. On motion of Mr. Gale, the question was put, Will the senate receive the following as an amendment? "And be it enacted, That the said board be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to sell or dispose of the interest of the said bank in the Cumberland Road Stock, and to transfer to the purchaser or purchasers thereof the same rights, privileges, and immunities, that are now possessed by the said bank, under the act incorporating the said turnpike company.

On motion of Mr. Howard to amend the same by adding the following: "Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to impair or release the contract and obligations already imposed on or entered into by the said bank relating to the making and completing the Cumberland turnpike road, without the consent of the president and managers of the said Cumberland turnpike road company;" the question was put, Will the senate assent to the same? The yeas and nays being required appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Mr. Howard.—1.
