

The resolutions in favour of William Byas, James Frazier, Paul Minitree and John Penn, were severally read the second, and by special order the third time, and dissented from.

The resolutions in favour of William Rigby and Zachariah Mills, were read the second and third time by special order and assented to.

The resolution in favour of John Taylor, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and dissented from.

The resolution in favour of John Lucas was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of Zachariah Roberts was read the second, and by special order the third time, and dissented from.

The resolution in favour of Thomas Lloyd was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of Thomas Duffee was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of Joseph Bush was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of William Jones was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of Nehemiah Beckwith was read the second, and by special order the third time, and dissented from.

The resolution in favour of George Gray was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of Charles Sewell was read the second, and by special order the third time, and postponed for further consideration.

The resolution in favour of William Coe was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of Stephen Varlow was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of Richard Foggett was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of Benjamin Popham was read the second, and by special order the third time, and dissented from.

The resolution in favour of Thomas Davis, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of William Lewis was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of Richard R Tasker was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of John Catherwood was read the second, and by special order the third time, and dissented from.

The resolution in favour of Jacob Knight was read the second, and by special order the third time, and assented to.

The resolution in favour of William Wellman was read the second, and by special order the third time, and dissented from.

The resolution in favour of William Merrick was read the second, and by special order the third time, and dissented from.

The resolution in favour of Henry Perry was read the second and third time by special order and dissented from.

The resolution in favour of Samuel Davis, was read the second and third time by special order and assented to.

The resolution in favour of Levin Frazier, was read the second and third time by special order and assented to.

The resolution in favour of Edward Spedden, was read the second and third time by special order and dissented from.

The resolution in favour of Anthony Davis, was read the second and third time by special order and dissented from.

The resolution in favour of John Staples, was read the second and third time by special order and assented to.

The resolution in favour of Benjamin Greentree, was read the second and third time by special order and assented to.

The resolution in favour of William Groves, was read the second and third time by special order and assented to.

The resolution in favour of James M'Collister, was read the second and third time by special order and assented to.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers the resolution in favour of Benjamin Pindle, and others, and the resolution relative to publishing the law for the stay of execution; which were read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

And returns the bill, entitled, An additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act for regulating the mode of staying executions, and repealing the acts of assembly therein mentioned, and for other purposes, endorsed "will pass." Ordered to be engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Gale to reconsider the resolution in favour of James M'Collister, the question was put, Will the senate reconsider the same? Resolved in the affirmative. The question was then put, Will the senate assent to the same? Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Hollyday, the following order was adopted: Ordered, That when the senate adjourns they adjourn to Monday morning 9 o'clock.