Also the further supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the distribution of a certain fund for the purpose of establishing free schools in the several counties therein mentioned, with the following message:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, January 8, 1821.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return you the bill, entitled, A further supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the distribution of a certain fund for the purpose of establishing free schools in the several counties therein named, and hope upon reconsideration you will pass the same. The amendment proposed by your honourable body goes to defeat the object of the bill, inasmuch as there is a moiety of the money received by the former commissioners, which they have not expended, and to which the county is entitled, and has heretofore been deposited in some one of the banks of Baltimore for the use of said county, and the former commissioners are ready to pay such moiety to the commissioners named in this act, in the passage of the same.

By order, J. BREWER, Clk.

Which was read.
