

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS

The clerk of the house of Delegates delivers a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Willoughby Mayburry of Frederick county; a bill, entitled, An act for draining a branch in Chester river, commonly called and known by the name of the Unicorn Branch; and a bill, entitled, An act to make valid a deed from Daniel Carroll to Thomas Simpson; which were read the first time and ordered to lie on the table. And returns the supplement to an act, entitled, An act relating to the police of the city of Baltimore, endorsed "will not pass."

Mr. Cresap from the committee reports a bill, entitled, An act relative to habitual drunkards; which was read the first time and laid on the table.

The bill authorising Robert Lamden, of William, late collector of Talbot county, to complete his collection, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will not pass.

The supplement to the act, entitled, An act authorising John Stevens, the elder, and Nicholas Martin, administrators of James Clayland, late sheriff of Talbot county, to complete the collections of the said Clayland, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will not pass.

The bill to alter and change the time of holding the levy court of Anne-Arundel county, was read the second time and laid on the table.

The bill for the benefit of David Harry, of Washington county, was read the second time and laid on the table.

The bill to authorise Benjamin Richardson, late collector of the third collection district in Harford county, to complete his collection, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will not pass.

The bill to enable Henry Macatee, administrator of Leonard Macatee, deceased, late collector of the fifth collection district in Harford county, to complete the said Leonard Macatee's collection, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will not pass.

The bill to authorise William M. Bond, late collector of the second collection district in Harford county, to complete his collection, was read the second, and by special order the third time, and will not pass.

The further supplement to the act for opening and extending North-street in the city of Baltimore, was read the third time and postponed for further consideration.

The bill for the relief of Benjamin Rawlings, of the city of Baltimore, was read the second time and referred to Messrs. Harper, Gale and Holliday.

The bill for the relief of Thomas Cole, of Cecil county, was read the second time and laid on the table.

The bill to incorporate the trustees of the Union Chapel of Harford county, was read the second time and laid on the table.

The bill to lay out and open a road from the Conowingo Bridge to the Pennsylvania line, was read the second time and laid on the table.

The bill to empower Henry Bennett, of Worcester county, to bring into this state certain negro slaves therein mentioned, was read the second time and laid on the table.

The bill for the relief of Catharine M. Kiernan, of Washington county, was read the second time and laid on the table.

The bill to confirm an act to repeal all that part of the constitution and form of government as relates to the division of Washington county into five separate election districts, and for other purposes, was read the second time and laid on the table.

The bill for the benefit of Samuel Castle, of Washington county, was read the second time and referred to Messrs. Harper, Gale and Carmichael.

The bill for the relief of Elizabeth Everitt, of Baltimore county, was read the second time and laid on the table.

The additional supplement to an act, passed at December session on the 27th day of December in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eleven, entitled, An act to authorise a lottery or lotteries in the city of Baltimore, was read the second time and laid on the table.

The bill to provide for the building a court house in Anne-Arundel county, was read the second time and laid on the table.

The senate adjourns until Monday morning 10 o'clock.

MONDAY, January 15, 1821.

The senate met. Present the same members as on Saturday, except Mr. Taney. The proceedings of Saturday were read.

The bill to authorise William M. Bond, late collector of the second collection district in Harford county, to complete his collection; the bill to enable Henry Macatee, administrator of Leonard Macatee, deceased, late collector of the fifth collection district in Harford county, to complete the said Leonard Macatee's collection; the bill to authorise Benjamin Richardson, late collector of the third collection district in Harford, to complete his collection; the supplement to the act, entitled, An act authorising John Stevens, the elder, and Nicholas Martin, administrators of James Clayland, late sheriff of Talbot county, to complete the collections of the said Clayland; the bill authorising Robert Lamden, of William, collector of Talbot county, to complete his collection; and the bill to authorise and empower Elizabeth Marbury Spalding, widow and administrator of George H. Spalding, late sheriff and collector of Charles county, to complete his collections, were sent to the house of delegates.

Mr. Carmichael from the committee reports a bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of the Bank of Caroline; which was read the first time and laid on the table.

The bill to incorporate a Lutheran church in Reister's-town, Baltimore county, was read the third time and will not pass. Sent to the house of delegates.

The additional supplement to an act passed at December session on the 27th day of December in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eleven, entitled, An act to authorise a lottery or lotteries in the city of Baltimore, was read the third time and the question put, Shall the bill pass? The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.—Mr. President, Messrs. Carroll, Cresap, Gale, Harper, Magruder, Maxcy, Parnham, West.—9.