

del county, to bring into this state the negro therein named; and a bill, entitled, A further supplement to the act, entitled, An act to regulate lotteries; which were read the first time and laid on the table. Also the engrossed bills from 134 to 159, inclusive, and from 164 to 183, inclusive. And returns the resolution relative to the establishment of an uniform mode of electing representatives in Congress, and of appointing electors of the president and vice-president of the United States, endorsed "dissented from." Also the bill for the benefit of the free school in Anne Arundel county, and the bill for the benefit of John Mercer, endorsed "will pass." Ordered to be engrossed. Also the bill for the better administration of justice in the several county courts in this state; the bill to alter such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the council and to the appointment of certain officers; and the bill relating to bail in civil cases, endorsed "will not pass."

The further supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the relief of Philo D. Forrest, of the city of Baltimore, was read the third time by special order and will not pass. Sent to the house of delegates.

Mr. Taney from the committee reports a bill, entitled, An act to repeal the act of assembly therein mentioned; which was read the first time and laid on the table.

The supplement to the act, entitled, An act to direct the mode of collecting the several taxes imposed on proceedings in the court of chancery, was read the second and third time by special order, and will pass. Sent to the house of delegates.

Mr. Gale presents the petition of William B. S. Riley, praying to be allowed to bring certain slaves into this state; which was referred to Messrs. Gale, Maxcy and Carroll, to report by bill or otherwise.

The bill to authorise the levy court of Dorchester county to allow a sum of money for the purposes therein mentioned, and the bill for the payment of the journal of accounts, were read the second and third time by special order and will pass. Sent to the house of delegates.

The bill for altering the times of holding the courts of Somerset and Worcester counties, was reconsidered, and the question put, Shall the bill pass? The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE — Messrs. Carroll, Gale, Maxcy, Parnham. — 4.

NEGATIVE — Messrs. Emerson, Jackson, Magruder, Taney, West. — 5.

Determined in the negative. Sent to the house of delegates.

William Spencer Esq. President, appears in the senate

The resolution relative to Thomas W. Fowler's account, was read the third time and assented to. Sent to the house of delegates.

The bill to authorise Elijah Weems, of Anne-Arundel county, to bring into this state the negro therein named, was read the second and third time by special order and will not pass. Sent to the house of delegates.

The engrossed bills from 134 to 159, inclusive, and from 164 to 183, inclusive, were read, assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill to repeal the act of assembly therein mentioned, was read the second and third time by special order, and the question put, Shall the bill pass? The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE. — Mr. President, Messrs. Carmichael, Carroll, Gale, Jackson, Taney. — 6.

NEGATIVE. — Messrs. Emerson, Magruder, Maxcy, Parnham, West. — 5.

Resolved in the affirmative. Sent to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a resolution in favour of Standley Robinson; a bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of Richard K. Watts, Jr and Helen his wife; and a bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of William Carroll of Queen-Anne's county; which were read the first time and laid on the table. And returns the engrossed bills 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 196, 197, 198, read and assented to:

The resolution relative to the amendment of the constitution of the United States, was read the second and third time by special order, and the question put, Will the senate assent to the same? The yeas and nays being required appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE — Messrs. Maxcy, Parnham. — 2.

NEGATIVE. — Messrs. Carmichael, President pro tem. Carroll, Emerson, Gale, Jackson, Magruder, Taney, West. — 3.

Determined in the negative. Sent to the house of delegates.

The bill for the benefit of Richard K. Watts, jr. and Helen his wife, was read the second and third time by special order and will pass with the proposed amendment. Strike out the words "before they shall have remained three years in this state and insert "within this state, or to any person residing therein." at the end of the bill. Sent to the house of delegates.

Mr. Gale from the committee reports a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of William B. S. Riley, of Worcester county; which was read the first, and by special order the second and third time, and will pass. Sent to the house of delegates.

The bill for the benefit of William Carroll, of Queen-Anne's county, was read the second and third time by special order and will pass. Sent to the house of delegates.

The resolution relative to the return of the militia, was read the second and third time by special order, and dissented from. Sent to the house of delegates.

The resolution in favour of Stanley Robinson, was read the second and third time by special order and dissented from. Sent to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a resolution in favour of Mary Taylor; and a bill, entitled, An act to authorise the establishment of a warehouse at the mouth of Monocacy on the west side of said river, for the inspection of tobacco; which were read the first time and laid on the table. And returns the resolution relative to St. John's and Washington colleges, endorsed "dissented from."

The resolution in favour of Mary Taylor, was read the second and third time by special order and assented to. Sent to the house of delegates.

The bill to authorise the establishment of a warehouse at the mouth of the Monocacy, on the west side of said river, for the inspection of tobacco, was read the second and third time by special order and will pass. Sent to the house of delegates.

The resolution relative to printing and stationary, was read the second and third time by special order and assented to with the proposed amendment. Strike out from the word "thereafter" 10th line of the