

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS

Thomas Jenkins, of Monroe county and state of Indiana, to James Dorsey of John, of Calvert county and state of Maryland; which was read the first and by special order a second time, and referred to Messrs Kent, Johnson and Quinton. Also a bill for the relief of Mary Nevitt, of Saint Mary's county; which was read the first time and laid on the table.

On motion the bill regulating the removal of civil and criminal cases from one county to another, was read a second time by special order, amended and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mr Price, Leave given to withdraw the bill making valid a deed of bargain and sale executed by a certain Levi Hillary, late sheriff of Allegany county, to Thomas Beall, of Samuel, of said county.

The clerk of the council delivers a communication from the executive; which was read and referred to the consideration of the house of delegates.

The senate adjourns until Monday morning 10 o'clock.

MONDAY, JANUARY 7, 1822.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on Saturday. The proceedings of Saturday were read.

On motion the question was put, Will the senate proceed agreeably to their resolution, to the election of a member to fill the vacancy occasioned by the non acceptance of John Stephen, Esq. Resolved in the affirmative.

The senate proceeded to said election, and the ballots being deposited in the ballot box, on examination thereof, it appeared that Dennis Claude, Esq had eleven votes, being the whole number of the members present in the senate chamber. Whereupon it was declared in the senate that Dennis Claude, Esq having had all the votes of the attending members, is unanimously elected a member of the senate of Maryland.

On motion, ORDERED, That the president address a letter to Dennis Claude, Esq and inform him that he has this day been unanimously elected a senator of Maryland, and invite him to take his seat.

The resolution in favor of Thomas Post, was read a third time and assented to

The resolution in favor of William Jacobs, was read a third time, and on motion ordered to lie on the table.

The bill to regulate the removal of civil and criminal cases from one county to another, was read a third time and postponed until to morrow.

The bill for the revaluation of real and personal property in Kent county, was postponed until Wednesday next

The bill authorising commissioners to make alterations in the election districts of Montgomery county, was postponed until Wednesday next.

The bill to authorise George Hosselbock, of Baltimore county, to bring into this state certain negroes therein mentioned, was read a third time and will not pass.

The bill to alter and repeal such parts of the constitution and form of government of this state as relate to the division of Frederick county into election districts, was read a second time and laid on the table.

The bill for the benefit of Mary Nevitt, of Saint Mary's county, was read a second time and laid on the table.

The bill entitled, A supplement to the act entitled, an act to alter and change the mode of repairing the public roads in Caroline County, was read a third time and will pass.

The bill to incorporate the trustees of Saint James' academy or school in Baltimore county, was read a third time and will pass:

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a bill entitled, A supplement to the act for the distribution of a certain fund for the purpose of establishing free schools in the several counties therein named; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table. Also a bill for the relief of William Woods; which was read the first and by special order the second time, and referred to Messrs Wootton, Miller, Browley, Chambers and Bowie.

The senate resumed the consideration of the bill to repeal the act entitled, An act to authorise certain alterations in Baltimore county and city court rooms; which was read, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill to repeal all such parts of the constitution and form of government as relate to the division of Baltimore county into seven separate election districts and for other purposes, was read a second time and laid on the table.

The bill to incorporate the trustees of Saint James' academy or school in Baltimore county, and the supplement to the act entitled, An act to change and alter the mode of repairing the public roads in Caroline county, and the bill to authorise George Hosselbock, of Baltimore county, to bring into this state certain negroes therein mentioned, were sent to the house of delegates

The bill for the relief of Thomas Henry and his wife, of Montgomery county, was postponed until Wednesday next.

The bill for the support and maintenance of Mary Farrell, of Charles county, was read a third time, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill entitled, A supplement to an act entitled, an act to authorise the Levy court of Baltimore county to levy a sum of money for completing the bridge over the Great falls of Gunpowder at Meredith's ford in said county, was read a second time and laid on the table.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivers a bill entitled, An act to make valid a deed therein mentioned; a bill for the relief of Molly Bateman, of Charles county; which were read the first time and laid on the table. Also a bill for the benefit of the trustees of the Catholic cathedral