

Renoe, of Charles county, to bring into this state a certain negro slave therein mentioned, with the accompanying petition, and hope upon reconsideration you will pass the same.
Which was read. By order, J. BREWER, Clk.

Also the bill authorising William Renoe, of Charles county, to remove a certain negro into the state of Maryland, with a petition from William Renoe; which were read and laid on the table. Also a resolution in favor of George H. Lanham; which was read the first and by special order a second and third time, assented to and sent to the house of delegates.

The following message was read, as ented to and sent to the house of delegates:

BY THE SENATE, January 18, 1822.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,—We propose with the concurrence of your house, to appoint a joint committee of both houses, to proceed forthwith to the head of the Susquehannah canal, to enquire into the effect of those obstructions on the navigation of the river Susquehannah created by wing dams erected by the Susquehannah canal company, with full power and authority to send for persons and papers, and to do in the premises what they shall deem necessary to enable them to report during the present session, a full and impartial statement for the guidance of the legislature in determining between the rights of the people of this state in the navigation of said river and the proprietors of the Susquehannah canal. We have appointed on the part of this house Mr. Price.
By order, WM KILTY, Clk.

The supplement to an act entitled, An act to establish a bank in the city of Baltimore, to be called the City Bank of Baltimore, was read a third time, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill to lay out ground for a wharf and landing place on Stapleford's creek, in Dorchester county, was read a third time, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill for the benefit of Elijah Melson, of Worcester county, was read a third time, and will not pass, and was sent to the house of delegates.

The bill for the benefit of George and William Reid, of Caroline county, was read a third time and will not pass, and was sent to the house of delegates.

The further additional supplement to the act for the erection of a new market house in Hager's Town, Washington county, and for other purposes, and the bill authorising the levy court of Anne Arundel county to levy a sum of money for the purposes therein mentioned, were severally read a third time, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a resolution requesting the governor to forward a law to the governor of Pennsylvania; which was read a first and by special order a second and third time, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates. Also a resolution in favor of Doctor Colin McKenzie; which was read the first time and laid on the table. Also a bill to revive the proceedings of the orphans' court of Caroline county; which was read the first and by special order a second and third time, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill entitled, A supplement to the act to regulate the inspection of tobacco, was read a third time, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

The senate adjourns until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1822.

The senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill concerning magistrate's judgments, was read a second time, and referred to Messrs John on, Price and Brownley.

The supplement to the act to provide for a new assessment, and to appoint collectors of the county tax in and for the city and county of Baltimore, and the bill entitled, A further additional supplement to the act to regulate elections were read a second time and laid on the table.

Mr Bowie from the committee to whom was referred the bill for the benefit of the heirs and widow of John Vincent Cooksey, of Charles county, reports the same with sundry amendments; which amendments were read the first and by special order a second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill to make public two roads in Baltimore county, was read a third time, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

The bill for the benefit of Lebanon chapel, in Talbot county, was read a third time, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a resolution in favor of Luther Martin; which was read the first time and laid on the table. Also a bill to abolish survivorship in joint tenancy; which was read the first and by special order a second time and referred to Messrs Johnson, Orrell and Brownley. Also a bill entitled, A further and additional supplement to the act regulating the inspection of tobacco; which was read the first and by special order a second time and referred to Messrs Bowie, Kent and Johnson. Also a bill entitled, A supplement to the act for the benefit of the Havre de Grace Bank; which was read the first time and laid on the table.

Mr Bowie from the committee to whom was referred the further and additional supplement to the act to regulate the inspection of tobacco reports the same.

The further supplement to the act regulating the inspection of tobacco, was read by special order a second time, and referred to Messrs Bowie, Johnson and Dickinson.

M Johnson moved for and obtained leave of absence for Mr Bowie from Monday the 21st, to Thursday the 24th inst.

Mr Bowie from the committee to whom was referred the bill relating to the University of Maryland, made the following report:

The committee to whom was referred the bill entitled An act relating to the University of Mary-