

read a second and third time by special order, amended, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered the engrossed bills from No. 156 to 172; which were read, assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

Also the following message; which was read.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, Feb. 22, 1823.

Gentlemen of the Senate—We assent to your proposition to request the governor to attend in the senate chamber this afternoon at five o'clock, to sign and seal such laws as may be ready for his signature, and have appointed Messrs. Teackle and Hughes to join with the gentlemen named by you.

By order,

J. BREWER, Clk.

Also a resolution in favour of John Bond; which was read and referred to the committee on revolutionary pensions.

A resolution in favour of the Potomac Company; which was read the first time and laid on the table.

A resolution relative to the printing the laws and votes and proceedings; which was read the first, and by special order a second and third time, assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

A resolution in favour of Benjamin Harris; which was read the first time and laid on the table.

A resolution in favour of John Clare; which was read the first, and by special order a second and third time, assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

A resolution in favour of Elie Beatty; which was read the first time and laid on the table.

A resolution in favor of certain editors; which was read the first, and by special order a second and third time, assented to and sent to the house of delegates.

A resolution in favour of William Gover; which was read the first, and by special order a second and third time, assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill relating to the inspection of salted fish in the city of Baltimore, was read a second and third time by special order, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The resolution in favour of Richard Moffitt, was read a third time, as assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

The resolution in favour of Benjamin Harris, was read a second and third time by special order, assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

The resolution relative to the administration of justice, was read a second and third time by special order, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates.

The resolution in favour of the Potomac company, was read a second time and laid on the table.

The bill to incorporate the trustees of the public school in Middletown, in Frederick county, was read a second and third time by special order, amended, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The resolution relative to certain records, was read a second, and by special order a third time, rejected, and returned to the house of delegates.

The resolution relative to Talbot county court house, was read a second and third time by special order, rejected, and returned to the house of delegates.

The resolution in favour of the Potomac river, was read a third time by special order, amended, assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a resolution in favour of Benjamin Gaither; which was read the first, and by special order a second and third time, assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

Also a bill laying duties on pleasure carriages; which was read the first, and by special order a second time, and laid on the table.

Mr. Wootton from the committee of conference to whom was referred the bill received from the house of delegates appointing commissioners to extend Washington street in Rockville, and for other purposes; reported a bill, entitled, An act appointing commissioners to extend Washington street in Rockville, and for other purposes; which was read the first, and by special order a second and third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill received from the house of delegates, entitled, An act appointing commissioners to extend Washington street in Rockville, and for other purposes, was then read, rejected, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill for the relief of the infant children of Robert Moore, was read a second and third time by special order, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill for the relief of Margaret Stuart, of Montgomery county, was read a second and third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The supplement to the act to enlarge the powers of the trustees of the poor of Charles county, was read a second and third time by special order.

The bill to incorporate the visitors of a school in Baltimore county, was read a second and third time by special order, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill for the relief of Benjamin Day of Prince-George's county, was read a second and third time by special order, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill for the extension of Forrest-street in the city of Baltimore, was read a second and third time by special order, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill for the relief of James Delaney, of the city of Baltimore, was read a second and third time by special order, passed, and sent to the house of delegates.