

ments, three hundred and sixty four appearances, one hundred and seventeen of which were renewals, one hundred and twenty five criminal appearances, ninety two criminal continuances and sixty two presentments found at that term. Of the references, four were judgments, three struck off and ninety continued. Equity cases, five continued. Appeals, three were judgments affirmed, two judgments reversed, one entered agreed, five dismissed and ten continued.

Trials—three of which were tried, one instituted to April 1813, one to April 1818, one to Sept. 1819. One hundred and thirty three judgments confessed, eight of which were removed to the court of appeals, three struck off, five entered agreed, twenty three non pross'd, one entered settled, ten entered satisfied, and one hundred and fifteen continued, two of which continued under rule argument.

Imparlanes—one entered agreed, one a retrait, one struck off and 104 continued.

Amerciaments—nine were struck off, seventeen sheriff further amerced and continued, and twenty two appearance and continued.

Appearances—one hundred and twenty three were returned non est, one hundred and sixty appearances and continued, forty five cepi sheriff amerced, six judgments confessed, twelve entered satisfied, fifteen struck off and three entered settled.

Criminal appearances—seventeen struck off, seven submitted and fined, four submitted and discharged, one indictment quashed, one tried and found guilty, two tried and acquitted, seventeen returned cepi sheriff amerced, and seventy six returned non est and renewed.

Criminal continuances—twenty six struck off, six submitted and fined, two submitted and discharged, one tried and convicted, four tried and acquitted, thirty five sheriff further amerced and continued, and eighteen continued under recognizance.

Presentments—five tried and convicted, one tried and acquitted, one struck off, two submitted and fined, fifty three capias, ordered to September.

That on the docket of September, eighteen hundred and twenty, there were ninety references, five equity cases, fifteen appeals from justices of the peace, five of which were to that term, two hundred and forty two trials, one hundred and sixty imparlanes, sixty two amerciaments, three hundred and thirty seven appearances, one hundred and eight of which were renewals, one hundred and twenty nine criminal appearances, seventy two criminal continuances, twenty two presentments found at that term. Of the references, 2 were judgments, 9 struck off, eight entered abated, and seventy one continued. Equity cases, five continued. Appeals, five judgments reversed, one entered abated, and nine continued.

Trials—four of which were tried, one instituted to April term 1815, two instituted to April 1819, and one to April 1820, two judgments on demurer, ninety six judgments confessed, of which four removed to the court of appeals, one inquisition tried at bar, three entered abated, four struck off, ten non prossed, three referred, four entered agreed, three entered satisfied, and one hundred and eleven continued, six of which were ejectments in which juries had been sworn and afterwards a juror withdrawn.

Imparlanes—three struck off and one hundred and fifty seven continued.

Amerciaments—four judgments confessed, four struck off, three entered satisfied, twenty sheriff further amerced, continued, and thirty one appearance and continued.

Appearances—one hundred and fifty eight returned non est, one hundred and twenty three appearance and continued, thirty cepi sheriff amerced, seventeen struck off, three entered satisfied, and six judgments confessed.

Criminal appearances—thirty nine struck off, seven submitted and fined, seven cepi sheriff amerced, two tried and convicted, one tried and acquitted, one submitted and discharged, three continued under recognizance, one nolle prosque, and sixty eight returned non est and renewed.

Criminal continuances—twenty one struck off, two submitted and fined, five tried and convicted, one tried and acquitted, thirty three sheriff further amerced, and ten continued under recognizance.

Presentments—six returned non est and renewed, thirteen cepi and continued under recognizance, three cepi sheriff amerced.

That on the docket of April term 1821, there were seventy five references, five equity cases, seventeen appeals from justices of the peace, eight which were to that term, two hundred and ninety eight trials, one hundred and twenty three imparlanes, fifty three amerciaments, four hundred and fifty eight appearances, one hundred and forty of which were renewals, seventy four criminal appearances, seventy five criminal continuances, and thirty four presentments found at that term. Of the references, one was judgment and removed to the court of appeals, four struck off and seventy continued. Equity cases—one struck off, one dismissed by plaintiff and three continued.

Appeals—one judgment affirmed, two judgments reversed, one referred, one struck off, one dismissed by appellant, one entered agreed and ten continued.

Trials—four were tried, one of them instituted to September 1818, one to April 1819, one to September 1819, and one to this term, one hundred and forty one judgments confessed, thirty one of which were removed to the court of appeals, five non prossed, twelve struck off, seventeen referred, one entered settled, five entered agreed, one ordered to Montgomery for trial, one entered satisfied, one entered abated, and one hundred and ten continued, four of which continued under rule argument. Imparlanes—all of which were continued.

Amerciaments—six judgments confessed, one of them removed to the court of appeals, four struck off, one entered abated, one referred, thirty sheriff further amerced and eleven appearances and continued.

Appearances—one hundred and twenty returned non est, two hundred and fifty seven appearance and continued, thirty six cepi sheriff amerced, fifteen struck off, three entered satisfied, one referred and twenty six judgments confessed.