

Criminal appearances—fifty six returned non est and renewed, four struck off, six cepi sheriff amerced, seven submitted and fined, one tried and convicted.

Criminal continuances—three tried and convicted, one tried and acquitted, ten submitted and fined, three submitted and discharged, one nolle prosequi, one indictment quashed, three struck off, thirty five sheriff further amerced and eighteen continued under recognizance.

Presentments—twenty continued under recognizance, seven non est and renewed, one cepi sheriff amerced, three tried and acquitted, two tried and convicted and one struck off.

That on the docket of October term 1821, there were 85 references, 3 equity cases, twenty appeals from justices of the peace, nine of which were to that term, two hundred and forty five trials, two hundred and fifty seven imparlances, sixty six amerciements, 370 appearances, one hundred and four of which were renewal, 65 criminal appearances, 84 criminal continuances and 45 presentments found at that term. Of the references, 3 were judgments, one removed to the court of appeals, one struck off and 79 continued. Equity cases, 3 continued. Appeals, two judgments affirmed, one judgment reversed, two referred and fifteen continued. Trials—4 were tried, one instituted to September 1817, one to September 1819, and two to April 1820, one hundred and nine were judgments confessed, seventeen of which removed to the court of appeals, fourteen non proessed, thirteen struck off, thirteen referred, two entered abated and 90 continued, two of which continued under rule argument. Imparlances—one judgment, two struck off and two hundred and fifty four continued. Amerciements—ten judgments confessed, one referred, 33 sheriff further amerced, eighteen struck off and 4 appearance and continued. Appearances—one hundred fifty four returned non est, 40 cepi sheriff amerced—ten judgments confessed, six struck off and 160 appearance and continued. Criminal appearances—sixteen struck off and 47 returned non est and renewed. Criminal continuances—38 sheriff further amerced, 36 continued under recognizance, 7 struck off, 2 submitted and fined and one submitted and discharged. Presentments—4 submitted and fined, one tried and convicted, and a capias ordered to April 1822, in 58 cases.

On the docket of April term 1822, there were 96 references, 3 equity cases, twenty four appeals from justices of the peace, nine of which were to that term, 345 trials, one hundred and sixty one imparlances, 73 amerciements, four hundred and twenty nine appearances, one hundred and forty one of which were renewals, 85 criminal appearances, 74 criminal continuances and 53 presentments found to that term. Of the references, 3 were judgments, two struck off, 8 entered agreed and 83 continued. Equity cases, 3 continued. Appeals—4 judgments affirmed, 4 judgments reversed, one dismissed, one referred, 4 struck off and ten continued. Trials—9 were tried, 2 of them instituted to Ap. 1819, 3 to 1820, and four to 1821, 1 hundred and eighty seven judgments confessed, fifty two of which removed to the court of appeals, thirteen non proessed, ten struck off, 9 referred, 6 entered abated, 6 entered agreed, 3 entered settled, one entered satisfied and one hundred and one continued, two of which continued under rule argument. Imparlances—two struck off, one entered settled, and one hundred and fifty eight continued. Amerciements—eleven judgments confessed, one removed to the court of appeals, 6 struck off, nineteen sheriff further amerced, and 57 appearance and continued. Appearances—77 returned non est, ten cepi sheriff amerced, twenty one judgments confessed, twenty four struck off two entered settled, and two hundred and ninety five appearance and continued. Criminal appearances—twenty eight returned cepi sheriff amerced, 7 continued under recognizance, ten struck off, one tried and acquitted, eleven submitted and fined, two submitted and discharged, and twenty six returned non est and renewed. Criminal continuances—thirty four sheriff further amerced, thirty three continued under recognizance, three tried and acquitted, one tried and convicted and 4 submitted and fined. Presentments—one continued under recognizance, two tried and acquitted, one submitted and fined, one submitted and discharged, one tried and convicted, one nolle prosequi, one indictment quashed, one ignoramus and twenty four capias ordered to October.

That on the docket of October term 1822, there were ninety two references, 3 equity cases, nineteen appeals from justices of the peace, nine of which were to that term, two hundred and ninety six trials, two hundred and ninety five imparlances, twenty nine amerciements, 494 appearances, 66 of which were renewals, fifty one criminal appearances, one hundred and three criminal continuances and 87 presentments found at that term. Of the references, two were judgments, and 90 continued. Equity cases, 3 continued. Appeals—one judgment affirmed, one judgment reversed, two struck off, and fifteen continued. Trials—4 were tried, one instituted to April 1817, one to September 1820, and two to April 1821, one hundred and fifty six judgments confessed, twenty one of which removed to the court of appeals, two discontinued, one abated, 9 non proessed, 4 entered agreed, two struck off, and one hundred and eighteen continued three of them continued under rule argument. Imparlances—two judgments, two struck off, one entered satisfied, one entered agreed, and two hundred eighty nine continued. Amerciements—two judgments confessed, twenty five sheriff further amerced, one appearance and continued, and one defendant discharged being non resident. Appearances—one hundred and nine returned non est, 78 cepi sheriff amerced, twenty one judgments confessed, eighteen struck off, 3 entered satisfied, two entered abated, and two hundred and sixty three appearance and continued. Criminal appearances—one submitted and discharged, two submitted and fined, sixteen cepi sheriff amerced, 3 continued under recognizance, and twenty nine non est and renewed. Criminal continuances—3 submitted and discharged, 3 submitted and fined, 7 struck off, 38 continued under recognizance, 49 sheriff further amerced, and 3 tried and acquitted. Presentments—two tried and acquitted, 4 tried and convicted, 3 indictments quashed, 3 submitted and fined, one struck off, one continued under recognizance, and 70 capias ordered to April 1823.

The undersigned begs leave further to report, that Friday of the first week of the term, is