

returned the bill entitled, a further supplement to the act declaring what shall be evidence in certain cases, endorsed, "will not pass."

Mr. Bowie from the committee to whom was referred the bill to establish state warehouses for the inspection of tobacco in the city of Baltimore, reported that the committee were of opinion that it ought to pass with the following amendments. Amendments proposed. 1st. In the 8th line of the 2nd page, after the words "for the" strike out "inspection and." 2nd At the end of the same line, after the word "cooperage," insert "thereof." 3rd. In the 10th line strike out the word "shipper." 4th. After the words "purchaser or the" in same line strike out the word "original." 5th. After the word "owner" strike out the words "if he ships it."— 6th. In the 12th line, same page, after the word "for," insert "inspection." Which amendments were read and ordered with the bill to have a second reading on to-morrow.

Mr. Johnson from the committee to whom was referred the bill for the benefit of Anna Louisa Gibson of Talbot county, reported that the committee had had the same under consideration, and were of opinion that it ought not to pass. The bill was then read the second, and by special order a third time, rejected and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Chambers from the committee to whom was referred the bill for the relief of Julian Coleman of the city of Baltimore, reported that the committee had had the same under consideration and were of opinion that it ought to pass. The bill was then read a second, and by special order a third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Chambers from the committee to whom was referred the bill for the relief of Jerima Floyd, of St. Mary's county, reported that the committee had had the same under consideration and were of opinion that it ought to pass. The bill was then read a second, and by special order a third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates. The bill entitled an act to establish and incorporate the Tow Line and Canal Company between Baltimore and Port Deposit, was read a third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates. The senate resumed the consideration of the bill to approve, confirm and assent to an act, passed by the commonwealth of Virginia entitled an act incorporating the Chesapeake and Ohio canal company, with the amendments proposed thereto. The question before the senate being on the adoption of the substitute offered by Mr. Chambers, for the amendment proposed by Mr. Johnson, on the 13th inst.; and the question was put, and determined in the affirmative. The question was then put, will the senate assent to the substitute as an amendment to the bill? Determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Winder moved to strike out the first section of the bill, and after considerable discussion the senate adjourned until 5 o'clock P. M.

5 O'CLOCK, P. M.

The senate met. Present the same members as in the morning.

The senate resumed the consideration of the bill to approve, confirm and assent to an act passed by the Commonwealth of Virginia, entitled an act incorporating the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company—the question before the senate being on striking out the first section of the bill; and after considerable discussion the question was put, will the senate strike out the first section of the bill. The yeas and nays being required appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.—Messrs. Stuart, President, Brownley, Cockey, Dickinson, Johnson, Orrell, Quinton, Winder.—6.

NEGATIVE.—Messrs. Bowie, Chambers, Fenwick, Kent.—4.

The senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

SATURDAY, February 21, 1824.

The senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The resolution relative to the court of appeals, and the resolution relative to the land office; were read a second time and laid on the table. The supplement to the act relating to sheriffs, and for other purposes, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirteen; was read a second time, and laid on the table. The bill to repeal so much of the act authorising the commissioners to lay out a road in Montgomery and Anne Arundel counties, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-three, as is therein mentioned, was a third time read, passed, and returned to the house of delegates. The senate re-considered the amendment as proposed to the bill to build or repair the jail of Prince George's county, and the same were receded from, and the bill returned to the house of delegates. The amendments proposed by the house of delegates to the bill for the relief of Rebecca Lindenberger, of the city of Baltimore, was read a second, and by special order a third time, and assented to, and with the bill ordered to be engrossed for a third reading. The bill setting apart the three first days of the county courts of the first judicial district, for the transaction of equity business, was read a second time and laid on the table. The bill for the relief of Amos W. Lynch, Francis Arlett and others, citizens of Queen Ann's county, was read a second, and by special order a third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates. The supplement to an act relating to public roads, passed at November session, 1794, was read a second time and laid on the table.

Mr. Chambers from the committee to whom was referred the further supplement to the act for regulating the mode of staying executions, reported that the committee had had the same under consideration, and were of opinion that it ought to pass with the following amendment:

Strike out all but the title of the bill, and insert: "Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, that hereafter no supersedeas shall be allowed on any judgment or decree of the court of appeals." Which amendment was read, and the question was put "will the senate as-