

the county of Frederick, reported, that the committee had had the same under consideration, and were of opinion that it ought to pass with the following amendments:

1st Strike out the word, 'and' in the 7th line of the 2d section and insert the word 'or.' 2d After the word 'to' in the 10th line of the same section insert the words 'order or.' 3d Add to the bill the following section: "And be it further enacted, That from and after such order or award made by any judge according to the provisions of the second section of this act shall have been filed in the office of the clerk of the county court, or in case no such order or award shall be made therefrom and after the final determination of the chancery suit, brought or to be brought by the said Beal C. Stinchcomb, against the representatives of the said William E. Williams, it shall and may be lawful for the plaintiff or plaintiffs, in any judgment or judgments rendered or to be rendered against the said Beal C. Stinchcomb, to issue within one year next after the said order or award of the judge shall be filed in the clerk's office as aforesaid, or within one year after the final determination of the said suit in chancery which shall first happen, execution or other process against the person, lands, tenements, goods, chattels, rights or credits, of the said Beal C. Stinchcomb, in the same manner as such plaintiff or plaintiffs might or could do if this law had not been passed, and in case any writ or writs of capias ad satisfaciendum shall have been issued on said judgment or judgments, then in the same manner also as if no such writ had ever issued."

Which were read and assented to. The bill together with the amendments was then read a second, and by special order a third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill to authorise two justices of the peace to judge and approve of the security in cases therein mentioned, was read the second time and laid on the table.

The bill for the revaluation of real and personal estate in Anne Arundel county, was read a second time.

On motion, the question was put, Will the senate agree to amend the bill by striking out the following words in the 4th line of the second section? "Or at as early a day previous thereto as is practicable or they may deem necessary?" Determined in the affirmative.

The bill, as amended, was then read a third time by special order, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a resolution in favour of David Richardson; which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Claude, Orrell, Miller and Dickinson.

And returned the bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act to prescribe the time which jurors shall serve in Baltimore county court, endorsed 'will not pass.'

The senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, January 19, 1825.

The senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of Saturday the 15th instant and yesterday were read.

The supplement to an act, entitled, An act to incorporate the trustees of the Westminster General Meeting House in Frederick county, was read a second, and by special order a third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

On motion, the bill to repeal an act passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-three, chapter 15, relating to the protection of slaveholders in Dorchester county, was referred to Messrs. Quinton, Miller and Claude.

The bill for the relief of John W. Steinmetz, of Washington county, was read a third time, passed with the proposed amendments, and returned to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a bill, entitled, An act ceding to the United States the jurisdiction of the state of Maryland in, to and over, certain lands on Thomas's Point and Poole's Island; which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Chambers, Orrell and Dickinson. Also a bill, entitled, An act to authorise the levy court of Washington county to levy a sum of money for the purpose of purchasing and providing a farm for the better and more economical support of the poor of Washington county; which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Tilghman, Miller and Kent. Also a bill, entitled, An act to incorporate the president and directors of the Baltimore Gunpowder Company; which was read the first time and laid on the table.

Mr Tilghman from the committee to whom was referred the bill for the more effectual protection of public worship in this state, reported, that the committee had had the same under consideration, and were of opinion that it ought to pass with the following amendments: In page 2 and 2nd line, strike out three and insert two. In same page 16th line, strike out three and insert two. In page 3 and 3rd line, after the word three insert "on conviction thereof before a magistrate of the county in which the offence shall or may be committed." In 5th page and 7th line strike out from the word evidence to the end of the section.

Which amendments were read and assented to. The bill was then read a second, and by special order a third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr Tilghman from the committee to whom was referred the bill to authorise the levy court of Washington county to levy a sum of money for the purpose of purchasing and providing a farm, for the better and more economical support of the poor of Washington county, reported, that the committee had had the same under consideration, and were of opinion that it ought to pass. The bill was then read a second and third time by special order, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The president laid before the senate the following communication:

Annapolis, January 19th, 1825,

Gentlemen,
I have the honour to enclose you a report of the proceedings of the commissioners appointed under the act of 1818, chapter 206, concerning the western limits of this state.

I remain, Gentlemen, yours &c.

JAMES BOYLE.

The honorable the president of the senate, and the speaker of the house of delegates.
Which, with the report referred to, was read and referred to the consideration of the house of delegates.