

in the ballot box, sealed up and delivered to the committee of the senate, appointed to meet the committee of the house of delegates, to count the ballots, who retired to the conference room.

The senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

Thursday, January 26th, 1826.

The senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Mr. Scott from the committee appointed to count the ballots in the election had for directors on the part of the state in the several banks, reported that the committee had found on examination of the ballots, that for the Farmers Bank of Maryland, Theodorick Bland, had fifty seven votes, Nicholas Brewer, had thirty one votes, Jeremiah T. Chase, had thirty six votes, and Joseph Sands, had four votes

For the Marine Bank of Maryland, Alexander C. Bullit, had fifty nine votes, John P. Kennedy, had forty seven votes, and William Meeteer, had thirty three votes.

That for the Mechanics Bank, Tobias E. Stansbury, had forty two votes, William Stewart, had seventy votes, and John J. Donalson, had twenty six votes

That for the Commercial and Farmers Bank, John Barney, had twenty six votes, Charles C. Egerton, had eighteen votes, George Riston had fifty two votes, and John G. Proud, had fifty one votes.

That for the Easton Bank, Lambert W. Spencer had fifty votes, William Clark, had fifty one votes and William K. Lambden, had five votes.

That for the Elkton Bank, Adam Whann, had fifty nine votes.

And that for the Hager's Town Bank, David Schnebly, had thirty eight votes, John Van Lear, had fifty six votes, and Jacob Schnebly, had twenty votes.

Whereupon it was declared in the senate, that Theodorick Bland, and Jeremiah T. Chase, for the Farmers Bank of Maryland; Alexander C. Bullit and John P. Kennedy, for the Marine Bank; Tobias E. Stansbury and William Stewart, for the Mechanics Bank; George Riston and John G. Proud, for the Commercial and Farmers Bank; Lambert W. Spencer, and William Clark, for the Branch Bank at Easton; Adam Whann for the Elkton Bank; and Daniel Schnebly and John Van Lear, Jr. for the Hager's Town Bank, were duly elected directors on the part of the state, for the ensuing year.

Mr. Miller asked and obtained leave to bring in a bill to be entitled, an act supplementary to an act entitled, an act to incorporate a company to make the several turnpike roads therein mentioned, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and fifteen, chapter one hundred and ninety; ordered that Messrs.