

Also, a bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act to incorporate a company, to make a turnpike road from the contemplated bridge over the river Susquehanna, at Conowingo creek to the Pennsylvania line, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Brownley, Miller and Thomas.

And returned the additional supplement to an act entitled, an act to incorporate a company to make the several turnpike roads therein mentioned, passed at December Session 1815, chapter 190. And the bill respecting last wills and testaments, severally endorsed, 'will pass.'

Also, the additional supplement to the act entitled, an act directing the manner of suing out attachments in this province, and limiting the extent of them; endorsed 'will pass with the proposed amendment, viz—

Amendment proposed. As a second section, insert—

2. And be it enacted, That it shall and may henceforth be lawful for the clerks of the several county courts, and they are hereby authorised and required on the application of the plaintiff or plaintiffs, in any judgment rendered by a justice of the peace, and producing the original judgment, or a copy thereof, under the hand and seal of the justice who rendered the same, to issue an attachment, as is authorised by the seventh section of the act, to which this is a further supplement, against the goods, chattels, and credits of the defendant or defendants, in said judgments, in the hands of the plaintiff, or in the hands of any other person or persons whatever, corporate or sole, whether the said defendant or defendants reside in the county in which the said judgments were rendered, or elsewhere; which attachments shall be directed to, and served by the sheriff or coroner, (as the case may require) of the county in which they are issued; and the same proceedings shall be thereon had and observed, as are now authorised and required by the existing laws in cases of judgments rendered in courts of record.

Mr. Quinton from the committee to whom was referred the bill for the relief of James B. Robbins, of Worcester county, reported that the committee had had the same under consideration, and were of opinion, that it ought to pass with the following amendments, viz—

Insert after the title of the bill—

Whereas James B. Robbins, of Worcester county, by his petition to this general assembly, hath set forth, that whilst guardian to his nephew John L. B. Robbins, in the year eighteen hundred and nineteen, he discovered a small vacancy contiguous to, and interfering with the lands of his said ward, and obtained a warrant for, and made a survey of the said vacant lands—paid the caution money, and confided in Mitchell Gray, esquire, the surveyor of the county, to make the proper return of the said certificate to the land office in due time; and that the said Mitch-