

The names of the present members of the four faculties are as follows:

FACULTY OF PHYSIC.

John B. Davidge, M. D. professor of Anatomy.
 Nathaniel Potter, M. D. professor of the Practice.
 Elisha De Butts, M. D. professor of Chemistry.
 Samuel Baker, M. D. professor of Materia Medica.
 Granville S. Patterson, esq. professor of Surgery.
 Richard W. Hall, M. D. professor of Midwifery.
 Maxwell McDowell, M. D. professor of Institutes.

FACULTY OF LAW.

David Hoffman, esqr. Professor.
 Nathaniel Williams,
 William Frick,
 Upton S. Heath,
 George Winchester,
 Roger B. Taney,
 Jonathan Meredith.

FACULTY OF DIVINITY.

Rev. William Wyatt, Professor
 Rev. Dr. Roberts
 Rev. Mr. Henshaw,
 Rev. Mr. Kurtz,
 Rev. Mr. Williams,
 Rev. Mr. Nevins,
 Rev. Mr. Glendy.

FACULTY OF ARTS AND SCIENCES.

Dr. William Howard, professor of Natural Philosophy.
 Rev. Mr. Allen, professor of Mathematics.
 Hon. Judge Hanson, professor of Political Economy.
 John P. Kennedy, professor of History.
 Edward C. Pinkney, professor of Rhetorick and Belles Lettres.

John D. Craig

The members of these four faculties, together with the provost, compose 'the regents of the University of Maryland.'

Each of the four faculties, appoints its professors and lecturers.

A professor can be dismissed only on impeachment by the faculty, to which he belongs, and a vote of three fourths of the regents.

It appears that only two of the faculties have gone into full operation, that is, the faculties of physic and law. The profes-