

regulate the gauging of casks and the inspection of domestic distilled liquors in the city of Baltimore, and as we believe that the interests of agriculture and commerce require the passage of that act, and as we are also of opinion that our obligation to maintain and respect the constitution of the United States, demands an interference on our part within the city of Baltimore, on this subject; we most respectfully request that you will reconsider and adopt that bill.

By order,

John Brewer, Clk.

Also a resolution in favor of James Leonard; which was read the first time, and referred to Messrs Johnson, Orrell, Miller and Dickinson.

Also a bill entitled, an act for the relief of Mary White Hill, of Frederick county; read and referred to Messrs Cockey, Claude, Johnson and Brownley.

Also a bill entitled, an act supplementary to the act entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act relating to justices of the peace in the city of Baltimore; read and referred to Messrs Scott, Kent and Miller.

And returned the bill entitled, an additional supplement to an act for the benefit of Ann Rochester, and Francis Rochester, endorsed, 'will pass.'

Also the bill to regulate the gauging of casks, and the inspection of domestic distilled liquors, in the city of Baltimore:

The additional supplement to an act to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road from Boonsborough to Hagers' Town, and for the extension of the charters of the several banks in this state, and for other purposes:

And the bill authorising the governor and council to appoint inspectors of salted fish for the city of Baltimore, and for other purposes; which were laid on the table.

And delivered a bill entitled, an act appointing commissioners for the town of Oxford, in Talbot county; which was read the first, and by special order a second and third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The senate reconsidered the bill to regulate the gauging of casks, and the inspection of domestic distilled liquors in the city of Baltimore; the same being read, was rejected and returned to the house of delegates.

The senate also reconsidered the additional supplement to an act to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road from Boonsborough to Hagerstown, and for the extension of the charters of the several banks of this state and for other purposes; the same being read, was rejected and returned to the house of delegates.