The clerk of the council delivered the following communication from the executive.

Council Chamber, Annapolis,
March 9th, 1826,

Gentlemen of the Senate, and of the House of Delegates,

I have the honor to transmit herewith, sundry communications from our senators and representatives in congress, acknowledging the receipt of resolutions passed by the general assembly, among which, one is received from general Samuel Smith, last evening, by which it will be seen that the President of the United States has recommended to the favorable consideration of congress, the claim of the state for interest upon the money advanced and expended for its defence during the late war, in the decided terms, that from its manifest justice, was to have been expected. We may now indulge the pleasing anticipation of a speedy adjustment and payment of this claim.

With the highest consideration,

I have the honor to remain,

Your obedient servant,

JOS. KENT.

Which was read and with the accompanying letters referred to the consideration of the house of delegates.
