

On motion, the resolution authorising the bridge over the upper part of the beaver dam run, which crosses the public road in Prince George's county, to be kept in repair at the expense of said county, was laid on the table.

The supplement to the act entitled, an act to authorise the governor and council of Maryland, to appoint the inspectors of flour for this state, was read a second time.

The supplement to the act, to provide for a new assessment, and to appoint collectors of the county tax in and for the county and city of Baltimore, was read a second time.

Mr. Dennis from the committee, reported a bill entitled, an act to provide for the preservation of the records belonging to the office of the clerk of Somerset county court, which was read the first time.

The bill for the relief of Wilson Carey Selden, Senior, and Wilson Carey Selden, Junior, citizens of Virginia, was read a second time, and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill to repeal an act, requiring the judges of the fourth judicial district to set apart certain days for the transaction of chancery business in said courts, so far as the same has reference to Dorchester county, was read a third time, passed with the proposed amendments, and returned to the house of delegates.

The senate resumed the consideration of the bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act against excessive usury.

The question before the senate, being on the adoption of the proviso, offered on Wednesday last, by Mr. Lloyd, and the question was put, will the senate assent to the proviso. Determined in the negative. The bill was then ordered to be printed, as heretofore amended by the senate, and made the order of the day for Tuesday next, 16th inst.

The bill for the relief of Wilson Carey Selden, Senior, and Wilson Carey Selden, Junior, citizens of Virginia, was read a third time by special order, amended, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

On motion, the senate reconsidered the bill to divorce Catharine Will and George Will her husband, of Frederick county, heretofore rejected by the senate and returned from the house of delegate, with a request of reconsideration, and the same being read, the following amendment was submitted, viz, strike out the words, "from bed, board and mutual co-habitation," in the 2d and 3d lines of the 1st section and insert the words, "a vinculo matrimonii."

And after some discussion, on motion, the question was put, will the senate lay the amendment on the table. Determined in the negative. On motion, the question was then put, "will the senate assent to the amendment? De-