

By the House of Delegates, January 29th, 1827.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return you the bill entitled, an act to repeal an act entitled, an act to repeal certain acts of assembly, relative to amerciements, and to lay a tax on plaintiffs who may institute actions at law in the several county courts of this state, believing the same to be a "money bill" which the constitution requires, shall originate in the house of delegates.

By order,

Gideon Pearce, Clerk.

The senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

Tuesday, January 30, 1827.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The resolution relative to a military academy at Frederick town, was read the first time.

The resolution in favour of Thomas Harwood, and his securities, was read the first time, and referred to the committee on ways and means.

The bill for the relief of Priscilla North, of Somerset county, was read the first time, and referred to the committee on divorces.

The bill to repeal part of an act of assembly therein mentioned, was read the first time.

The bill entitled, a supplement to the act to provide for the preservation of the records belonging to the office of the clerk of Somerset county court, was read the first time, and referred to Messrs. Spence, Dennis and Whitely.

The bill to alter and change the name of Alexander Ewing, a minor of Talbot county, to Alexander Ewing Dudley, was read the first time.

The bill to authorise the several orphans courts of this state to order the sale of real estates in certain cases, was read the first time, and referred to Messrs. Marriott, Thomas, and Herbert.

The bill to establish magistrates courts in the several counties of this state, for the trial of assaults, and assaults and batteries, was returned to the house of delegates.

The messages received on yesterday from the house of delegates, relative to the resolution in favour of William Caton, and the bill to repeal an act entitled, an act to repeal certain acts of assembly relative to amerciements, and to lay a tax on plaintiffs who may institute actions at law in the several county courts of this state, were read.

Mr. Thomas asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Nelson.