----------------	-----------	---------	----

Determined in the affirmative, and the bill was sent to the house of delegates.

The senate proceeded to the election of a director on the part of the state, in the bank of Baltimore.—The ballots being deposited in the ballot box, on examination thereof, it appeared that William Dickinson had thirteen votes, being the whole number of votes given.

Whereupon, it was declared in the senate, that William Dickerson, was unanimously elected a director on the part of the state, in the Bank of Baltimore.

Mr. Dennis delivered the following report, which was read the first time.—

The committee on invalid deeds, to whom was referred, the bill entitled, an act for the relief of Henrietta Maria Goldsborough, of Baltimore county, have had the same under consideration, and respectfully report:—

That every one has a right to dispose of his own property in his own mode, and according to his own humour, provided he does not exceed those limits, which the law prescribes, in order to guard against perpetuities.—The bargainer named in this bill, has disposed of his property in one manner; this bill proposes to dispose of it in another.—Your committee therefore recommend its rejection.

By order,

Isaac Hines, Com. Clerk.

Mr. Johnson offered the following message, which was read, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates.

By the Senate, January 30th, 1827.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

This being the day heretofore fixed upon for the election of bank directors on the part of the state, we propose to proceed to said election immediately.

The following persons have been put in nomination by the senate.—For the Mechanics bank, Charles Salmon, Nathaniel Pearce, William Stewart, Tobias E. Stansbury. For the Union bank, Alexander C. Bullitt, John P. Kennedy, Hugh M'El-
