

“And be it enacted, That the commissioners of lotteries shall not permit any state lottery to commence drawing until seventeen-twentieths of the tickets in said lottery have been first sold.”

We return you the bill and the amendments.

By order,

Wm. Kilty, Clk.

Which was read and assented to, and with the bill sent to the house of delegates.

The bill to authorise the trustees of the poor of Charles county to purchase and build a new poors house, was read a second, and by special order a third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill for the relief of Jacob Miller, of Baltimore county, was read the third time, rejected, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill for the relief of Thomas Holmes of the city of Baltimore, was twice read, rejected, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill for the relief of John Davis of the city of Baltimore, twice read, rejected, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill for the relief of Hugh Elliott, of the city of Baltimore, was read twice, rejected, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill relative to the compensation of bailiffs in Montgomery county, was twice read, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill to provide for the repair of public roads in Montgomery county, was read a second and third time, amended, by inserting the following before the last section:

And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the levy court to furnish each supervisor with a list of the public roads of his district, designating to which district a road shall belong, which is a dividing line between districts.

Passed as amended, and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Heath, asked leave to bring in a bill to be entitled, a further additional supplement to the act entitled, an act for granting possession, enrolling conveyances, and securing the estates of purchasers; which was refused.

The bill to repeal part of an act of assembly therein mentioned, was read, rejected, and returned to the house of delegates.