

to your proposition, and return the bill with the clauses objected to, stricken out.

By order,

Gideon Pearce, Clerk.

The bill relating to the Washington monument was then considered, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

And returned the bill for the relief of Teresa Court and her children endorsed, 'will pass.'

And delivered a bill authorising commissions to be issued to take the testimony of witnesses residing in this state, which was read and referred to Messrs Dennis, Johnson and Rees.

And delivered a bill to regulate the gauging of casks, and the inspection of domestic distilled spirituous liquors, in the city of Baltimore, which was read and referred to Messrs. Kennedy, Heath and Johnson.

The committee (Mr. Kennedy dissenting,) reported unfavourably on said bill, which was again read, and laid on the table.

Mr. Dennis made an unfavourable report upon the bill authorising commissions to be issued to take the testimony of witnesses residing in this state; the bill was then read, rejected, and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Dennis, offered the following order, which was read and laid on the table.

Ordered that when the senate adjourn they adjourn till tomorrow seven o'clock, ante meridian.

Mr. Kennedy, made an unfavourable report upon the bill for the relief of George Opperman, which was read and laid on the table.

Mr. Kennedy made a favourably report upon the bill to divorce Mary Ann Darrington, and her husband William Darrington, of the city of Baltimore; which was read, and laid on the table.

Mr. Heath, reported favourably upon the bill to provide for the valuation and condemnation of certain real estate in the city of Baltimore; which was read the second and third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill to provide for altering the grade of Fayette street, in the city of Baltimore, was read a third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

The amendments proposed by the house of delegates to the bill relating to manumissions, was read and assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed

Mr. Heath, made an unfavourable report upon the memorial of James McIlhenny and others, praying such a modification of the laws regulating the inspection of flour, as shall