

The bill to provide for the completion of the records in the office of the register of wills for Washington county, was twice read, amended, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

Amendment proposed:

Add to the end of the bill,

And the levy court of Washington county, if they consider it expedient, shall cause suit to be brought upon such bond, or against the securities in the same, and the amount received, shall go to the county.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a resolution in favour of the several regular committee and reading clerks of the general assembly; which was read and assented to, and returned to the house of delegates.

Also, a bill entitled, an act to regulate the fees of certain officers; which was read the first, and by special order a second and third time.

Mr. Dennis offered the following amendment:

1st. Strike out from the beginning of section 4th, to the end of the first part of said section.

Which was read, and the question put, will the senate assent to the same. The yeas and nays being required appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Dennis

Rees.—2.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Forrest,
Kennedy,

Heath,
Marriott,

Johnson,
Sewell

Whiteley.—7.

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Dennis, then moved to lay the bill on the table.

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Dennis offered the following amendment, viz.

2. In the fourteenth of the following lines of the twenty-sixth page, strike out the words 'agreeably to the acts of November session, 1805, chapter 9, section 7, and insert 'agreeably to the laws of this state.'

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Dennis moved to postpone the consideration of the said bill. The yeas and nays being required appeared as follows: