

The bill to divorce Mary Ann Darrington, and her husband William D. Darrington, of the city of Baltimore, was read a third time.

Mr. Dennis called for the previous question, and it was accordingly put.

The yeas and nays being required appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Dennis                      Whiteley. 2.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs, Forrest,                      Heath,                      Johnson,
                  Kennedy,                      Marriott,                      Rees,
                  Sewell.—7.

Determined in the negative.

The bill was then rejected, and returned to the house of delegates.

The senate proceeded to the consideration of the bill supplementary to an act entitled, an act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session in the year 1805, chapter 110.—The bill was then read a third time, and the question was put 'shall the bill pass?'

The yeas and nays being required appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Forrest,                      Heath,                      Johnson                      Marriott. 4.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Dennis,                      Kennedy,                      Rees,
                  Sewell                      Whiteley.—5.

Determined in the negative.

So the bill was rejected and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Dennis moved that the senate adjourn until 4 o'clock
