

On motion, the supplement to an act, against excessive usury, was made the order of the day for Wednesday next the 23d instant.

The bill for the benefit of William W. Whittington, Charlotte Whittington, John R. Whittington, and Robert H. Whittington, the infant children and heirs at law and representatives of William Whittington, late of Worcester county, was read the second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The clerk of the house of delegates, delivered the following messages, which wereread.

By the House of Delegates, January 18th, 1828.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We propose with the concurrence of your honorable body to proceed to the election of directors in such banks as the state is interested in, as a stockholder, on Wednesday the thirtieth instant at twelve o'clock.

By order,

Gideon Pearce, Clerk.

By the house of Delegates, January 18th, 1828.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message relative to the States' Library, and concur therein.

By order,

Gideon Pearce, clerk.

Also a bill, entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act for the benefit of the infant children of Benjamin B. Wroth, late of Kent county deceased, passed at December session, 1825, chapter 217, which was read the first time.

And returned the bill to authorise the recording of a deed from Samuel Coale to Henry Miller of Cecil county with the following message, which was read.

By the House of Delegates, January 18th, 1828,

Gentlemen of the Senate,

It is with regret we learn that you have rejected the bill entitled, an act to authorise Henry Miller of Cecil county to record a deed. We are well aware that he would have a remedy in the Court of Chancery, but we are equally aware that it is a very troublesome and a very expensive proceeding, and in this case it would cost the poor man more than the small property which is his little all, is worth; we