

assessment to the levy court of Caroline county, and the said valuation shall be assessed and levied and collected, as other county charges are, and paid over to such owners or their heirs or assigns.' The said amendment was then read and receded from. The bill was then read, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Sewell from the committee made a favorable report upon the bill to prevent the erection of gates on any of the public roads in Cecil county. The said bill was then read a second time.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a bill to incorporate the Conewingo and Wilmington Turnpike Road Company, which was read the first time and referred to the committee on internal improvement.

Also, a bill to incorporate the Franklin Turnpike Road Company, which was read the first time and referred to the committee on internal improvement.

Also, a bill entitled, an act relating to the jurisdiction of justices of the peace of Cecil county, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Sewell, Heath and Kennedy.

Also, a bill entitled, an act to incorporate the town commonly called and known by the name of "The Trappe," in Talbot county, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Lloyd, Rees and Dennis.

Also, a bill for changing of part of the divisional line between Dorchester and Caroline counties, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Whiteley, Herbert and Heath.

Also, a bill to incorporate the Port Deposit and Columbia Turnpike Road Company, which was read the first time and referred to the committee on internal improvement.

Also, a bill entitled, an act for the destruction of wolves, bears, panthers, and other noxious animals in Allegany county, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Kennedy, Lloyd and Herbert.

And returned the bill to incorporate a company for the establishment of a literary, scientific and military academy in Baltimore county, with the following message,

By the House of Delegates, March 1, 1828.
Gentlemen of the Senate,

We herewith return to your honorable body, a bill enti-