

Mr. Harrison from the committee to whom was referred the bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Mary B. Godwin, of the state of Indiana, reported the same with the following amendment, viz.

Amendment proposed: At the end of the 1st section add the following words, "as if she was of the full age of eighteen years;" which amendment was read and assented to.

The said bill was then read a second, and by special order a third time, and passed with the proposed amendment.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a bill, entitled, An act to alter the location of the election districts in Harford county therein mentioned; which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Sewell, Kennedy and Whiteley.

Also a bill, entitled, An act to incorporate The Union Slate Company; which was read the first time, and referred to Messrs. Heath, Smith and Thomas.

Also a bill, entitled, An act to alter and repeal the act, entitled, An act for regulating and inspecting weights and measures used in this state, passed at December session 1825, chapter 206; which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Herbert, Forrest and Smith.

Mr. Forrest from the committee made an unfavourable report upon the bill, entitled, An act to give referees in cases referred from any court of law in this state, and arbitrators by private agreement, in certain cases power to require and coerce the attendance of witnesses. The said bill was then read a second time.

On motion of Mr. Forrest, the senate took up for consideration the bill, entitled, An act to restrain attorneys and solicitors in chancery from entering their appearance to any suit, bill, or action at law or in equity, in the courts of this state, without special authority.

The amendments reported by the committee to said bill having been read a second time,

Mr. Harrison moved to amend the same by striking out the words "or personal application of the defendant or defendants," and inserting in lieu thereof of the words "or the verbal direction of said defendant or defendants given in open court." And the question was put, and determined in the affirmative.

The amendments were then assented to.

The said bill was then read a second, and by special order a third time, and passed with the proposed amendments.

Mr. Heath from the committee to whom was referred the
