

vest the title to said land in the trustees of said society; the bill, entitled, An additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act empowering the levy court of Cecil county at their discretion to levy a sum of money to build a bridge over the Octorara creek in said county, at or near Samuel Rowland's store, passed at December session 1821, chapter 112. The bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act empowering and directing the commissioners of Cecil county, to build two fire-proof offices for the use of the clerks of the county and register of wills, for the safe keeping of the records appertaining to their respective offices in the town of Elkton; the bill, entitled, An act to continue in force the acts of assembly which would expire with the present session; the bill, entitled, An act to provide for the opening of a street in Hagers-town; the bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to alter and change the name of Elizabeth-town, in Washington county, to Hagers-town, and to incorporate the same; the bill, entitled, An act to lay out and open a road in Baltimore and Frederick counties; the bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to prevent unnecessary accumulation of costs on all actions or suits at law in the county courts of this state, passed at December session 1829, chapter 166; and the bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to provide for electing commissioners for Washington county, and prescribing their powers and duties; severally passed by the senate yesterday; the resolution requesting the governor to cause to be bound up the pamphlet laws of the several states and territories of the United-States as may be now in the state library, assented to by the senate on the same day; and the bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Thomas F. Ward, of Saint-Mary's county, rejected by the senate on the same day, were returned to the house of delegates.

The communications from the executive and from the president of the Baltimore and Reisters-town turnpike road company, were sent to the house of delegates.

On motion of Mr. Heath, the bill, entitled, An act to divorce Richard Gittings, of Baltimore county, was re-committed.

Mr. Heath, from the committee to whom was re-committed the said bill, reported a bill, entitled, An act to divorce Richard Gittings and Elizabeth Gittings, of the city of Baltimore, being a substitute for the said bill; which was read the first time.

Mr. Sewell, from the committee, made a favourable report upon the bill, entitled, An act authorising and empowering the commissioners of Harford county, to build a bridge