

thought fit to put the Senate in possession of the amendments contemplated, so that we might consider of their propriety.

By order, L. Gassaway, Cl'k.

Which, having been read—the question was put, will the Senate receive the substitute? On this question, the yeas and nays being asked for, were taken, and appeared as follows

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Marriott, Prest.	Herbert
Forrest	Kennedy
Heath	Sewell—6

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Dennis	Thomas
Harrison	Whiteley
Rees—5

Determined in the affirmative—so the Senate agreed to receive the substitute.

The question was then put, will the Senate assent to the message? Determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Smith, from the committee, made a favorable report upon the bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Susannah Holmes, of Baltimore county.

The said bill was then read a second time.

On motion of Mr. Heath, the bill, entitled, An act to abolish imprisonment for debt on any judgment rendered by a justice of the peace, was taken up for consideration.—The bill being on its second reading.

Mr. Reese moved to amend the bill by striking out “fifty” in the 12th line and inserting in lieu thereof the word “thirty;” which amendment was read and assented to.

The bill having been read throughout and amended.

On motion of Mr. Kennedy, the title thereof was amended, so as to read as follows: A bill, entitled, An act to abolish imprisonment for debt on certain judgments rendered by justices of the peace.

The question was then put, “shall the bill as amended be engrossed for a third reading?” On this question the yeas and nays being asked for were taken, and appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Dennis	Rees
Harrison	Sewell
Heath	Smith
Herbert	Thomas
