

NEGATIVES.

Messrs. Marriott, Prest. Forrest—2

Determined in the affirmative—so the Senate ordered the bill to be engrossed for a third reading; and having been engrossed, was then, on motion of Mr. Heath, read a third time by special order, and passed.

Mr. Whiteley, from the committee, made an unfavorable report upon the bill, entitled, An act authorising Marcey Fountain, late collector of Caroline county, to complete his collection.

The said bill was then read a second, and by special order a third time, and rejected.

Mr. Whiteley then offered the following message; which was read, assented to, and sent to the House of Delegates, with the bill to which it relates.

By the Senate,

February 17th, 1831.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have rejected the bill, entitled, An act authorising Marcey Fountain, late collector of Caroline county, to complete his collections, and herewith return the bill to your honorably body. The act of 1820, chapter 48, fully provides for the case mentioned in said bill.

By order,

L. GASSAWAY. Clk.

On motion of Mr. Smith, the president named Messrs. Herbert and Kennedy to supply the vacancies occasioned by the absence of Messrs. Lloyd and Nelson on the committee on ways and means.

On motion of Mr. Smith, the bill entitled, an act for the relief of Susannah Holmes, of Baltimore county, was read the third time by special order and passed.

Mr. Herbert, from the committee, made an unfavorable report upon the bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act for regulating and inspecting weights and measures used in this State, passed at December session 1825, chapter 206.

The said bill was then read a second time.

Mr. Smith, from the committee made a favorable report upon the bill, entitled, an act to incorporate a company under the name of the Jefferson Library Company.

The said bill was then read a second time.

Mr. Forrest, from the committee, made a favorable report upon the bill, entitled, an act to incorporate the Frederick and Emmitsburg turnpike company.

The said bill was then read a second time.

Mr. Kennedy, from the committee, made a favorable report
