NEGATIVE.

Mr. Forrest—1.

Determined in the affirmative. So the Senate ordered the bill to be engrossed for a third reading.

The clerk of the House of Delegates delivered a bill, entitled, an act for the relief of Garrett Smith, of the city of Baltimore, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Heath Smith and Herbert.

Also, a bill, entitled, an act for the relief of Thomas Williams, of Washington county, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Kennedy, Rees and Dennis.

Also, a bill, entitled, an act for the benefit of Mark Miller, of Baltimore county, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Smith Heath and Harrison

Also, a bill, entitled, an act to provide for enforcing the collection of penalties incurred under existing resolutions of this State which was read the first time and referred to the committee on ways and means

Also, a bill, entitled, a supplement to an act entitled an act empowering the Levy Courts of Harford and Baltimore counties, to build a bridge over the Little Gunpowder Falls, at the Rock Run, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Smith, Sewell and Whiteley.

Also, the bill entitled, an act requiring the commissioners of Harford county to open the road therein mentioned, heretofore passed by the Senate with an amendment, accompanied with the following message, which was read

By the House of Delegates,

February 18, 1831.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return you the bill, entitled, An act requiring the commissioners of Harford county to open the road therein mentioned. We have disagreed to the amendment proposed by your honorable body, and request that you will reconsider and pass it without the amendment. The bill if amended as proposed by your honorable body, would be inoperative. The road has been located by commissioners legally appointed, and admitted to by required by the public convenience. Injustice would be done if the money necessary for the opening of it should now be withheld.

By order,

G. G. Brewer, Clk.
