

Also a bill, entitled, An act to provide for the appointment of inspectors and measurers of lumber and fire-wood in the town of Salisbury, in Somerset and Worcester counties, and at Tony Tank landing, and their vicinities; which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Dennis, Harrison and Heath.

Also the bill, entitled, An act to divorce William W. Vickars and Rebecca Vickars, of Dorchester county, heretofore rejected by the senate, accompanied by the following message; which was read.

By the House of Delegates,
February 21st, 1831.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return you the bill to divorce William W. Vickars of Dorchester county, which was rejected by your honorable body, and very respectfully request you to reconsider the same, there being such testimony accompanying the bill as we trust will justify the passage of the same.

By order,

George G. Brewer, Clk.

Also the bill, entitled, An additional supplement to an act to amend the lottery system, heretofore rejected by the senate, accompanied by the following message; which was read.

By the House of Delegates,
Feb. 21, 1831.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We perceive with regret that you have rejected the bill, entitled, An additional supplement to an act to amend the lottery system, which we respectfully return and ask you to reconsider, because we believe that the provisions of the said bill are necessary to secure, and that they will produce to the state at least the sum of $18,000 within the ensuing year; being so much of its revenue as is estimated by the treasurer, in his annual statements, to be derived from state lotteries, and licenses to lottery dealers, part whereof, to wit, the sum of 9000 is relied upon to defray so much of the ordinary expenses of the government, whilst of the residue the sum of $5000 will be required to fulfil the obligations of the state to the University of Maryland, and the sum of $1000 to pay the interest upon $20,000 of state stock created by virtue of an act passed at the last session of the general assembly, for the benefit of the managers of the Washington Monument, and issued in anticipation of funds to be derived from lotteries, leaving the balance of said resource,
