

chester county, heretofore rejected by the senate, was reconsidered.

The senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

TUESDAY, February 22, 1831.

The senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday.

The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill, entitled, An act relating to the city of Baltimore; and the bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act supplementary to an act for the opening of Pratt-street, passed at December session 1828, chapter 88, severally passed by the senate yesterday. The bill, entitled, An act to regulate fees on executions, rejected by the senate on the same day; and the resolution in favour of Elizabeth Dawkins, of Calvert county, widow of a revolutionary soldier, rejected by the senate on the same day, were returned to the house of delegates.

The message requesting a reconsideration of the bill to divorce Richard Gittings, and Elizabeth Gittings, of Baltimore county, and the message requesting a reconsideration of the bill, entitled, An act to abolish imprisonment for debt, on certain judgments rendered by justices of the peace, severally adopted by the senate yesterday, were sent to the house of delegates, with the bills to which they relate.

On motion of Mr. Sewell, the bill, entitled, An act requiring the commissioners of Harford county to open the road therein mentioned, was re-committed.

Mr. Dennis, from the committee, made a favourable report upon the bill, entitled, An act to provide for the appointment of inspectors and measurers of lumber and fire wood, in the town of Salisbury, in Somerset and Worcester counties, and at Tonytank landing, and their vicinities.

The said bill was then read a second, and by special order a third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Smith, from the committee, made a favourable report upon the bill, entitled, An act to confirm the proceedings of certain commissioners, and extend the time for making a road in Baltimore county.

The said bill was then read a second, and by special order a third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

On motion of Mr. Whiteley, the bill, entitled, An act to
