

judgment, the person for whose use the same may be entered or his representative, shall have power to prosecute the same to judgment as if the legal plaintiff had not died."

"Be it enacted; That any defendant or defendants may make the same legal or equitable defence as might or could have been had and maintained against the assignor or assignors at the time of such assignment, and to the same extent."

Which amendment was read and assented to.

The said bill was then read a second, and by special order a third time, and passed with the proposed amendment.

Mr. Thomas from the committee on ways and means, made a favourable report upon the resolution in favour of Standish Barry; also upon the resolution in favour of Richard Ridgely.

The said resolutions were then severally read a second, and by special order a third time, and assented to.

On motion of Mr. Heath the bill, entitled, An act to authorise the commissioners of Baltimore county to levy and assess a sum of money for the purposes therein mentioned, was read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mr. Kennedy, the senate took up for consideration the bill, entitled, A supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the despatch of business in Frederick county court, passed at December session 1829, chapter 107.

The amendment heretofore proposed to said bill, was read a second time and assented to.

The bill having been read a third time and amended, was then passed as amended.

On motion of Mr. Heath the bill, entitled, An act relating to the jail of Baltimore city and county, was read a second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mr. Forrest the engrossed bill, entitled, An act to restrain and punish certain evil practices, was read the third time by special order and passed.

Mr. Smith from the committee made a favourable report upon the bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of Mark Miller, of Baltimore county.

The said bill was then read a second, and by special order a third time, and passed.

Mr. Rees from the committee made a favourable report upon the resolution in favour of Joseph Wicks 4th.