

Feb. 24.]

OF THE SENATE

240

On motion of Mr. Forrest, the following message was read, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates.

By the Senate,

February 24, 1831.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We concur with you in the propriety of proceeding forthwith to the election of a senator in congress. Messrs. Forrest and Harrison are appointed to join the gentlemen named by your house to count the ballots.

By order,

L. Gassaway, Clk.

Mr. Smith offered the following message; which was read, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates with the bill to which it relates.

By the Senate,

February 24th, 1831.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We would most respectfully ask of your honorable body a reconsideration of the bill relating to the jail of Baltimore county, hoping, that as the objects of this bill are highly necessary and beneficial, it will, on a further view of the subject, receive your approbation and assent.

By order,

L. Gassaway, Clk.

On motion of Mr. Kennedy, the engrossed resolution directing the executive to cause to be published certain laws passed during the present session, was read a third time, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates.

Mr. Forrest, from the committee, made a favourable report upon the bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of the heirs of Mary Burchenal.

The said bill was then read a second, and by special order a third time, passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Kennedy submitted the following order; which was read and adopted.

Ordered, That the messenger of the senate forward to each member of the senate, by mail, as soon as they are published, the journals of the senate and house of delegates, which have not yet been furnished.
