lar; broadsides at eight dollars, 112 copies; and laws at two dollars and fifty cents, 1600 copies; which report was read the first, and by special order, the second time, and concurred in.

Mr. Mayer, from the committee appointed to examine the proceedings of the electors of the senate, reported that the committee had examined the same, and that it appears that the electors assembled at Annapolis on the nineteenth day of September, in the year eighteen hundred and thirty one, and duly elected as senators the following gentlemen:—Octavius C. Taney, Bene S. Pigman, Benjamin S. Forrest, Charles F. Mayer, Thomas Sappington, James Montgomery, William T. Wootton Dennis Claude, and John G. Chapman, for the western shore:—and George Reid, Thomas Emory, Henry Page, Littleton P. Dennis, Samuel G. Osborn and William Hughlett, for the eastern shore.

With regard to the election of Mr. Page, your committee would state that at the time of his being chosen by the electors, he was a member of the executive council, a circumstance, however, which the committee does not think rendered him ineligible for the station of senator The soundness of this conclusion is, nevertheless, submitted to the consideration of the senate; which was read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

The Senate adjourned until to morrow morning, 10 o'clock.

THURSDAY, December 29, 1831.

The senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The message agreeing to the proposition of the house of delegate to appoint a joint committee on the library, was sent to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered the following message, to wit:

By the House of Delegates,
December 29, 1831.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We propose to appoint a committe to consist of five members of this house in conjunction with such gentlemen as may be appointed by your honorable body, to devise such measures of respect as may be deemed proper to be paid to the memory of Daniel Martin, Esq. late governor of this