

Ordered, That Messrs. Mayer, Page and Sappington, be a committee to prepare and report the same.

The president laid before the senate a communication from the treasurer of the western shore, made in pursuance of the act of the legislature, passed at December session, 1824, entitled, an act relating to the treasurers of the western and eastern shores, which was read and referred to the consideration of the house of delegates.

The senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

FRIDAY, December 30th, 1831.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday.

On motion of Mr. Chapman, it was ordered, that when the senate adjourn, it adjourn until Monday next.

The Senate adjourned until Monday morning, 10 o'clock.

MONDAY, January 2, 1832.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on Friday. The proceedings of Thursday and Friday were read.

William Hughlett and Littleton P. Dennis, Esquires, senators elect, for the Eastern Shore, appeared in the senate chamber, and after qualifying according to the constitution and form of government took their seats.

The communication of the Treasurer of the western shore, made in pursuance of an act of the Legislature, passed at December session 1824, entitled, an act relating to the Treasurer of the western and eastern shores; and the message adopted by the senate on Thursday last, in answer to a message from the house of delegates proposing to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of the late Governor Martin, were sent to the house of delegates.

Mr. Sappington submitted the following message, which was read the first and by special order the second time, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates.
