

Choptank River, at Greensborough, in Caroline county, reported favorably thereon; the bill was then read a second time.

The bill, entitled, a supplement to the act, entitled, an act for the benefit of M. A. Ringgold and children, being entitled to a third reading, was taken up for consideration, and whilst progressing in the reading;

On motion of Mr. Sappington, the following amendments were read and assented to:

After the word, "that," in the seventh line, insert the word, "all." After the word, "joint," in the same line, insert the word, "and."

On motion of Mr. Mayer, the following amendments were read and assented to. At the end of the bill add the following sections:

Sec 1. And be it enacted, that it shall be the duty of the said William Price, David Claggett and Isaac S. Swearingen, or of the survivors or survivor of them within thirty days after making any sale as authorised by the act to which this is a supplement, to make report thereof to Washington county court, to be recorded among the records of said court; and that it shall be the duty of said Price, Claggett, and Swearingen, every six months until their trust shall be finally executed by payment over or investment of the monies of all the sales made by them under authority of said Act, to report under oath to said court an account of their said trust exhibiting the sales made and the monies received by them, and the amount remaining in hands of said persons, or of any of them, from such sales; whereupon on the filing of said report, it shall be the duty forthwith of said court in reference to the investment required by the second section of the Act aforesaid, to order by a certain day the investment, in such way as to the court shall seem proper of the monies or the part thereof required as aforesaid to be invested, appearing by such account to be in the hands of said persons or of any of them; which order shall be obligatory upon each and all of the said persons without regard to the fact in whose hands, among said persons, said monies may appear actually to be, and that it shall be the duty of said court ex-officio to enforce said orders for the said investment, and also the performance of the duty aforesaid of reporting every six months, in such manner, as orders of said court sitting as a court of equity may be enforced.

Sec. 2 And be it further enacted, that in the cases where payment over of monies from said sales is directed by the second section of the act to which this is a supplement, it shall be the duty of the court upon the reports.
