

Mr. Mayer moved to strike out the word "with," and insert the word "after," so that it would read "after great pecuniary embarrassment &c."

The question was put, and it was decided in the affirmative.

Mr. Emory then moved further to amend said paragraph by striking out the word "pecuniary" and insert the words "individual and public," so that it would read "after great individual and public embarrassment, &c."

The question was put, and it was determined in the affirmative.

The preamble and resolutions were then read the third time by special order and unanimously assented to.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered the following resolutions to wit:

A resolution in favor of Ann Evans, of the state of New York, which was read the first time and referred to the committee on invalid deeds.

A resolution in favor of Mary Wheeler, widow of Nathaniel Wheeler, a revolutionary soldier. And

A resolution in favor of Thomas Muir, a revolutionary soldier; which were severally read the first time and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

Also the following bills, to wit:

A bill entitled, an act to authorise the granting writs of repleven by justices of the peace, and for other purposes therein mentioned; which was read the first time and referred to the committee on judicial proceedings.

A bill entitled, an act to amend the charter of the city of Annapolis, and to exempt the property in the said city belonging to the corporation thereof from the payment of county taxes; which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Claude, Mayer and Sappington.

On motion of Mr. Montgomery, the bill entitled, an act to authorise Doctor William I. McElhenny of Harford county to hire out certain negroes, was read the third time by special order and passed.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.
