

It was determined in the negative and the bill returned to the house of delegates.

On motion of Mr. Mayer, the resolution in favor of William C. Conine was read the second time by special order and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

The bill entitled, an act to allow Alexander Matthews, a former sheriff of Charles county, further time to complete his collections, was read the third time as proposed to be amended, and the question was put, "shall the bill pass?" it was determined in the negative, and the bill was returned to the house of delegates.

The bill entitled, an act supplementary to the act relating to the university of Maryland, was read the third time, and the question was put, "shall the bill pass."

It was determined in the negative, and the bill returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Wootton from the committee to which was recommended the bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act to revive and extend the charter of the Planters' Bank, of Prince George's county, so as to enable that institution gradually to wind up its affairs, reported that the committee had had said bill again under consideration, and were of opinion it ought to pass with the following amendments, which were read and assented to:

1st. section 13th line after the word "may" insert, "be justly liable at the time, when the rate or rates at which the stock shall be received, may be determined as aforesaid."

2d section 4th line, after the word "Marlborough," insert "for the purpose of fixing the rate or rates at which the stock of the bank shall be received from its debtors, as provided by the preceeding section."

Strike out 3d section.

4th section 1st line between the words "the" and "to," strike out the word "act" and insert "original or supplemental date."

The bill was then read the second time.

The bill entitled, an act for the relief of the securities of collectors of taxes and sheriffs, was taken up for consideration. The amendments heretofore offered, were read the second time and assented to. The bill was then read the second time.