

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Chapman,
Claude,
Dennis,
Emory,

Hughlett,
Page,
Reid,
Wootton—8

So it was determined in the negative.

The bill was then read through, and the question was put,
"Shall the bill be engrossed for a third reading?"

And it was determined in the affirmative.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a resolution in favor of Margaret King; which was read the first time and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

Also the following bills:

A bill entitled, a further additional supplement to the act entitled, an act to incorporate a company for the purpose of cutting and making a canal between the river Delaware and the Chesapeake Bay passed at December session 1799, chapter 16; which was read the first time and referred to the committee on internal improvement.

A bill entitled, an act relating to the compensation of the surveyor of Queen Anne's county; which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Emory, Hughlett and Osborn.

A bill entitled, an act to divorce Joseph Harvey, of the city of Baltimore, from his wife Rebecca C. Harvey; which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Mayer, Montgomery and Reid.

A bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Female Domestic Missionary and Education Society of Hager's town; which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Sappington, Pigman and Page.

A bill entitled, an act for the relief of Mary Hickson, of Frederick county; which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Sappington, Mayer and Montgomery.

A bill entitled, an act to authorise the levy court of Somerset county to levy a sum of money for the purposes therein mentioned, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Dennis, Claude and Hughlett.

A bill entitled, an act to confirm the proceedings of the commissioners of Baltimore county; which was read the first time and referred to the committee on invalid deeds.
