

Mr. Claude from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, an act to divorce Jane Freeman of the city of Annapolis, from her husband William L. Freeman, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration, and were of opinion it ought not to pass.

The bill was then read the second, and by special order the third time, rejected and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Sappington from the committee to which was referred the bill entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act to provide for the election of commissioners for Washington county, and prescribing their powers and duties, reported that the committee had had said bill under consideration and were of opinion it ought not to pass.

The bill was then read the second, and by special order the third time, rejected and returned to the house of delegates.

The bill entitled, an act for the benefit of Richard Iglebarte, late sheriff of Anne Arundle county, was read the third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Pigman from the committee on finance to which was referred the bill entitled, an act to authorize the levy court of Worcester county to draw from the treasury or any of the banks of this state, any amount of money which now in or may be allotted by the treasurer of this state for the purposes of education in Worcester county, reported favorably thereon.

The bill was then read the second, and by special order the third time passed, and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Pigman from the committee on finance to which was referred, a resolution in favor of Fielding Lucas, Jr. and a resolution in favor of Levin D. Collier, reported favorably thereon.

They were then severally read the second, and by special order the third time assented to and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Pigman from the said committee to which was referred the resolution relative to a digested index of the Maryland reports, reported that the committee had had said resolution under consideration, and were of opinion it ought not to be assented to. It was then read the second time:

Mr. Sappington submitted the following order, which was read and adopted: