

And be it enacted, That no judgment rendered by any justice of the peace, shall unless and until the same shall on an appeal be affirmed by a county court, be deemed and taken to be a lien on any lands, tenements, or real estate, or estate or interest therein legal or equitable (chattels real excepted.)

On motion of Mr. Dennis, the 1st section was reconsidered and the following amendment read and assented to.

In the 2nd line of the 1st section after the word "constables" insert the words "or sheriff."

On motion of Mr. Mayer, the following amendment was read and assented to.

At the end of the bill add as follows:

And whereas doubts have been entertained as to the proper construction of an act of the general assembly of Maryland, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty nine, entitled, "an act to limit the time for taking appeals from magistrates judgments;" therefore, be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful to and for any person or persons or body corporate to enter and prosecute any appeal from the judgment of any justice of the peace of this state, where such appeal is now allowed by law, provided such appeal be entered and prosecuted to and at the county court to be held next after the rendition of such judgment, or be taken at any time within sixty days from and after the rendition of such judgment, but no such appeal shall operate as a supercedeas to any execution upon any such judgment, unless the party appearing, give bond with security as already provided for.

The bill was then read the second, and by special order the third time and passed.

The bill entitled, a supplement to the act entitled, an act for the promotion of internal improvement was read the third time, and the question was put "shall the bill pass?"

The yeas and nays having been asked for, were taken and appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.
