

laws and regulations concerning last wills and testaments, the duties of executors, administrators and guardians, and rights of orphans and other representatives of deceased persons, passed by the senate on Tuesday, was sent to the house of delegates.

The message, resolutions and bills delivered by the clerk of the house of delegates on yesterday, were taken up for consideration.

By the House of Delegates,
March 7th, 1832.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We propose with the concurrence of your honorable body to invite his excellency the governor to attend in the senate chamber to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock, to sign and seal the engrossed bills, in the presence of both houses, as required by the constitution.

We have appointed Messrs. Browne, of Q. A. and Lyles to join such gentlemen as may be appointed by your honorable body.

By order,
G. G. Brewer, Cl'k.

A resolution in favor of Claudius Legrand; which was read the first time and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

A resolution relative to furnishing the house of delegates,

A resolution in favor of Elizabeth Barrow,

A resolution in favor of John A. Sangston; which were severally read the first time and referred to the committee on finance.

The resolution in favor of William C. Conine, which originated in the senate, was returned endorsed 'assented to.'

A bill entitled, an act to prevent any clerk of the court of appeals or any auditor in chancery in this state from practising law as an attorney, in any of the courts of common law or equity in this state; which was read the first time and referred to the committee on judicial proceedings.

A bill entitled, an act regulating the inspection of green hides and skins in the city of Baltimore; which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Sappington, Pigman and Messrs.

A bill entitled, a further additional supplement to an act for draining a marsh and branch known by the name of Long Marsh, lying in Queen Anne's and Caroline counties, passed