

bill to be entitled, an act for the relief of Jane Freeman, of the city of Annapolis.

Ordered, That Messrs Claude, Osborn and Emory, be a committee to prepare and report the same.

Mr Pigman from the committee on insolvency, to which was referred the bill entitled, an act for the relief of John Lamb, of the city of Baltimore, reported favorably thereon.

The bill was then read the second time.

The senate adjourned until 4 o'clock, P. M.

---

FOUR O'CLOCK, P. M.

The senate met in pursuance of adjournment. Present the same members as in the forenoon.

Mr. Page submitted the following message, which was read and adopted.

By the Senate,
March 8, 1832.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The governor has appeared in the senate chamber to perform the duty assigned for this evening, but we regret that the bills to be signed by his excellency the governor this evening at the hour of 7. cannot be prepared in time for that purpose. We therefore propose to your honorable body to postpone that ceremony until to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock.

By order,
Jos: H. Nicholson, Clk.

Mr. Claude submitted the following message, which was read and adopted.

By the Senate,
March 8, 1832.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We propose to move in procession to morrow morning on the arrival of the steam boat, to participate in the funeral obsequies of Doctor Taney, and invite your honorable body to unite with us in paying that last tribute of respect to